Case Number: 17-6428/17-1810-OF

Authorization for Release: Sergeant Hubbard

Location of Incident: 272 Elm Street

Offense: Robbery: armed RSA: 636:1
Second Degree Assault; 631:2

Synopsis of Event:

On Friday, April 21, 2017 at approximately 0957 hours the Laconia Police responded to 272 Elm Street reference a neighbor reporting a possible robbery/assault occurring within the downstairs apartment of the apartment building.

The same neighbor also reported that shortly after the banging within the apartment had stopped a person was seen leaving the area and was described as wearing a blue sweatshirt, mask and possibly carrying some type of object like a baton.

When the police arrived on scene at the apartment building they quickly discovered that someone had forced their way into the downstairs apartment and assaulted a male with a baton type object. The police searched the area for the suspect with the above description with negative results. A State Police K9 unit was also used to track the person which also had negative results. The victim who was found within the apartment had injuries to his head along with other minor injuries. He was transported to the Lakes Region General Hospital and treated for his injuries. He was later released from the hospital.

The police is seeking the help of the community in locating a vehicle of interest that was seen leaving the area shortly after the incident had occurred. The vehicle is described as being a Honda Civic, four-door, color; maroon, unknown year. The rims on the vehicle are painted silver. (Photos attached)

Anyone with any information regarding this incident should call Officer Marquis at the Laconia Police Department at 603-524-5252.
