- e) Proactively resist and publicly condemn any practices or incidents in our community which either result from or might encourage prejudice, intolerance, harassment and discrimination.

Objectives:

The Committee shall:

- a) Educate about and establish a comfort level with the changing face of our community by working with individuals, City Council, business groups, service, health and educational institutions.
- b) Actively pursue the prevention of prejudice, intolerance, harassment and discrimination in our community through public discourse, media exposure, community action and education on these issues.
- c) Create programs and initiatives in furtherance of our vision such as the Welcoming Laconia Initiative, the Laconia Multicultural Festival and the Martin Luther King, Jr. Day Celebration.

BANNER DISPLAYS AT CITY HALL

Purpose: As the City of Laconia's center of government, City Hall is more than an administrative government building. City Hall is symbol of the City of Laconia itself and of all it represents and stands for. Because of this the display of appropriate banners at City Hall will also be seen by many as representing the values that City embraces. Both longtime residents and first time visitors will find the banners displayed at City Hall will give them an insight as to what kind of community Laconia aspires to be.

Banners can be of many different types:

Affirmational: Some banners will celebrate and affirm basic human rights such as the Gay Pride Banner.

Awareness: Some banners such as Alzheimer's and Cancer Awareness draw attention to the ongoing need to support medical research to find a cure for these terrible diseases.

Celebratory: Some banners will recognize the heroes who walk among us such as our Law Enforcement Officers, Fire Service Officers and those in our community serving in the Armed Forces.

Promotion: Some banners will promote community wide events such as Multi-Cultural Day and Pumpkin Fest.

Religious and/or politically themed banners are not appropriate and will not be allowed.

Management and Review:

The City Council at all times retains approval authority of what is displayed at City Hall.

The City Human Rights Committee will have the responsibility of reviewing all applications to display banners and make a recommendation to the City Council for their approval. The Laconia Human Relations Committee will also develop a formal set of rules and guidelines for banner display that will be presented to the City Council for their review and approval.
