Dear Chief:

Greetings! My name is Christopher J. F. Ruggiano, and I am 33 years of age.

I just wanted to take a moment to extend to you and your department my prayers and support as you protect the life and property of those in your community! The need to pray and express thankfulness for law enforcement has always been important, however, as the recent events across our nation have shown, the need is all more imperative now.

So, please accept this letter with my thankfulness and appreciation for you and your officers as you strive every day to protect and serve those that have been entrusted to you. Please know of my prayers and support always. Keep up the great work! God bless.

Sincerely,

Christopher J. F. Ruggiano

Chief Canfield,

I am writing this email to you because I had the opportunity to come into contact with one of your officers on 02/23. Officer Goodheart was professional, courteous, efficient, and respectful from start to finish. I am a firm believer in the quote that "Attitude reflects leadership." And although the encounter was not under the best of circumstances, I was relieved to be treated in the way that I was treated. I thought it best to let you know that your officer is one of the best at her job.

Respectfully,

Timothy McComas
