8.I. Discussion of joint meeting with the Government Ops and Ordinances Subcommittee

Chair T. Shore thinks the joint meeting between the commission and the subcommittee went well Monday. Her idea was to go through the ordinance and the areas of concern that were brought up.

The commission went over the ordinance section by section along with the RSA's cited. Some sections to reconsider revising the language is:

- Criteria
- What would entail for an appeal
- Section B(1)(f): the commission accepting money and services
- Section B(2): possibly changing "Powers and Duties" to "Responsibilities"

- Section E(2)(f) and strike section E(2)(g)

H. Martin noted that section B(2)(12&13) is an example of where the money could be spent

Chair T. Shore noted that section C(a) should be more concise and asked who is significant? H. Martin added that could be where education comes in for those that are unaware.

The commission has no interest in looking at doorknobs or paint colors unless the color is unreasonable and doesn't match with the characteristic of the area.

The commission would like to finish the rest of the review at the next meeting before meeting with the subcommittee and asked if they could schedule a meeting for June.
