NH Humane Society

Over a century of love for those without a voice.

Pet of the Week: PIG PEN

Handsome, loyal, debonair, a canine widower, Pig Pen arrived in October at New Hampshire Humane Society because his owner died. We provide care and comfort to over 1,000 animals each year, lately many because their owners have passed away or can no longer provide for their pets due to age and infirmity.

Pig Pen is the polar opposite of his Charlie Brown name, dapper, clean, neat as a pin, with a clear pristine will to find a new forever home. His birthday is January 1st; shall Pig Pen not ring in the New Year still waiting in a kennel at the shelter for a new set of humans to fall in love with him. Experienced dog owners in a cat free home would be preferred, with adults who can give him a chance to thrive and provide him a warm, safe environment to flourish and blossom into the devoted dog he was before and can be again.

5 Surprising Things Your Shelter needs Today...

When most people decide to donate to their local animal shelter, they immediately think of cat and dog food, cat litter, and cute toys for the animals to play with. And while all of that is appreciated and welcomed, there are a number of items you may not think of that the shelter desperately needs. Check out these 5 items you may not normally think of to donate to the NH Humane Society today:

- 1) STAMPS - it's not as much fun to buy as a furry mouse cat toy, but we at the NH Humane Society take our donor appreciation very seriously, and that means a lot of thank you letters and donor acknowledgements going out the door, to the tune of $.42 apiece. A roll of stamps costs us $49.00 - and is easy to grab the next time you are at the Post Office.
- 2) Toilet paper - yes, people work here too, and we all need toilet paper. The NH Humane Society has 20 full and part-time staff, and 110 volunteers who come in seven days a week to care for our hundreds of animals.
- 3) Gift Cards - to Lowe's, Walmart, Agway... The shelter needs lots of supplies that don't get donated, and having gift cards to some of our local partner stores where we buy much-needed supplies always come in handy.
- 4) Laundry Detergent - in addition to our seemingly endless need for gently used blankets and linens for our furry friends to cuddle up on, we are always in need of laundry detergent. We have an industrial washer and drier and a cadre of volunteers who come in to do the daily loads of laundry.
- 5) Money - cold hard cash goes a long way in helping defray our daily, monthly and annual operating costs. Medical care, salaries and utilities cost a LOT here at the shelter! Consider making a donation online to help us continue our mission of helping those most vulnerable members of society, or even giving a donation as a gift - you can sponsor a cage or kennel in a friend or family member's name, or become a monthly supporter through our Guardian program: Donate Now.

News from the NH Humane Society!

Christmas with Fur-Ever Friends

The NH Humane Society hosted its first Christmas tree decorating event on Saturday, December 17, 2016. Despite snowy weather and some slick roads, Christmas with Fur-Ever Friends was a success! At least a dozen children came to participate in holiday crafts, including wildlife friendly popcorn and cranberry strings and pinecones covered in peanut butter and bird seed for the outdoor tree, which was graciously donated by Miracle Farms in Moultonborough.

Merry makers arrived at the shelter in time for a tree blessing and decorating and a cheerful bonfire, as well as to partake in food and drinks. Visitors were also welcome to tour the shelter facility, and meet the many cats and dogs waiting for their forever homes this holiday season. Two cats were adopted during the event, and many dogs spent time with potential new families in our visiting rooms.

"The NH Humane Society is part of the Lakes Region community and we like to open our doors to welcome visitors, especially during this time of holiday cheer. This community gives us so much – donated items, financial support, and volunteer hours – and we like to give back," says Marylee Gorham, Executive Director of the Humane Society. "This event was a huge undertaking but came off seamlessly, even with a little winter storm in the mix, thanks in large part to our volunteers and fund-

Pleasant Street Elementary School First Graders' Community Service Project Benefits the NH Humane Society

The NH Humane Society is pleased to be the recipient of a community service project conducted by the first graders at Pleasant Street Elementary School. Mrs. Best's and Mrs. Friend's classes learned about wants and needs in their social studies classes, and focused their attention on the animals living at the New Hampshire Humane Society this holiday season.

Using the NHHS "Wish List," the students decided to hold a collection drive to collect canned cat and dog food, toys, and paper towels, as well as monetary donations to address all of the other needs of the shelter; this resulted in the collection of 121 items and $160 raised. The students decided to donate $100 of the monies collected directly to the shelter and use the remaining $60, and their math skills, to purchase cat litter for the shelter.
