Laconia Senior Center

Hello! Another great week at the Laconia Senior Center! We started out the week on Feb. 6 with the Laconia Police Department, and they spoke about Tax Fraud and Senior Scams. A huge "thank you" goes out to Lt. Kevin Butler and Det. Eric Benoit. Bank of NH will be coming on Feb. 23 at 9:30 am to also speak about Tax Fraud. Don't miss this informational session. On Tuesday, Feb. 7 Mike Dowell (Author) came in and read a story during our lunch. Very well accepted and enjoyed. Thank you, Mike and looking forward to having you come again. Taxes are filling up fast, so book your free appointment with AARP's Mr. Perry.

More games are being introduced! We will have the Visiting Nurse come in and host a game hour. Everyone enjoyed her last visit with Tic Tac Toe. Games requested were Cribbage, UNO, Yahtzee, Price is Right, Scrabble and Sorry. If you would like to bring in other games, please join us between 9 and 10 am. Then join us for lunch at 11:30 am, please RSVP. We will be having some challenges/competitions with the games. Other suggestions were to have sewing, knitting or crocheting classes. A couple of donated sewing machines would be nice!

We are also connecting with different agencies to bring in topics for your knowledge. A bus tour is being scheduled for March 23 to tour Laconia Thrift Shops, more info to follow. This will be exciting! Another topic is to check into getting computer classes going so we are all up to date with the electronic world.

If you would like to join us here at the Center and you don't have a way to get here, call the CAT: Concord Area Transit bus at 603-255-1989, or concordare-atransit.com. They will pick you up at home and bring you back home. What a deal! 😊

See our calendar (previous page) for upcoming events. Don't forget our Valentine's ❤️ lunch on Feb. 14 at 11:30 am. Please RSVP at 603-524-7689. Stay tuned for the March Newsletter. We have exciting events planned.

THE VIETNAM WAR

A LACONIA HIGH SCHOOL HISTORY PROJECT

Throughout the month of April, students in Taylor Osborne's CCR US History class at Laconia High School will be engaging in several different historical processes as they create a project focusing on Laconia's involvement in the Vietnam War. Students will work with the Laconia Historical and Museum Society to analyze primary sources from the 1960s and '70s, as well as connect with local Vietnam veterans to hear and share their stories. Students will generate biographies of several of Laconia's veterans. Their research and work will culminate in the creation and public presentation of a website towards the end of May.

Community Support Is Needed:

Members of the Laconia Historical and Museum Society have worked to connect with veterans who would like to take part in interviews. Additionally, the Historical Society is able to provide several years' worth of newspapers and members of the Historical Society are available to work with the students as they investigate these documents. The class is hoping to gather resources from friends or family members of Laconia's Vietnam veterans, to share the stories of those who are no longer around to share them themselves. Examples of helpful primary sources could be things like photographs, letters, journals, etc (Students will work with copies of documents, and all original copies will be returned, unaltered, to the rightful owners)

The community's support and participation will be a huge help with this important project, and it is much appreciated. The more community support, the better the project will be!
