Reading Round-Up!

Would you like help to pick out bedtime stories? Do you feel like you've read everything your child loves, and you're looking for something new? Laconia Librarians to the rescue! Just fill out a quick form, and we'll gather some great options, and put them on our reserve shelf for you! All you need to do is come to the library and pick them up. Find the form on our website.

1000 books before kindergarten

The concept is simple, the rewards are priceless! Read any book (even repeats) to your newborn, infant, and/or toddler. The goal is to have read 1,000 books before your precious one starts kindergarten. If you read just 1 book a night, you will have read about 365 books in a year. That is 730 books in two years and 1,095 books in three years. Feel free to keep a record of any book that is being read to your child including by teachers and siblings.

Sign up in the Children's Room to receive all you need to get started!

STEM Kits

Did you know the Children's Room has STEM kits you can borrow? Check out one of these interactive kits for some fun hands-on learning!

Sorting Bears Kit

This is a great sorting tool! Separate the bears by color or size, and even do a little bit of beginner math.

Magnet Lab

How do magnets work? What sticks to magnets and what doesn't? This kit is truly magnetic!

Dental Hygiene Kit

Test out your teeth-brushing skills with a giant mouth. This kit makes learning about dental hygiene truly fun!

Animal Tracks Kit

Learn about the tracks that NH animals make! With this kit, you'll be able to make your own tracks, and find out how to search for animal tracks and scat in nature.

Storytime Kits, Bedtime, Cats, Ocean, Birds

Each kit comes with 3 themed books, pictures to color, and activities to hold your own storytime at home!

And many more!

Check out a kit, and see just how much fun learning can be! (Limit, one kit per patron.)

Memory Cart

The Library's Memory Cart is located in the Local History Room and is available for use on a first come, first serve basis.

Plan ahead!

Important information to know before using the Memory Cart:

- All users of the Local History Room are required to sign in and provide a license or other form of identification to be left at the circulation desk while using the room.
- The Memory Cart may not be used to digitize materials that are currently under copyright. § 201.14 Warnings of copyright for use by certain libraries and archives.
- VHS footage is digitized in real time. If your VHS tape is 1 hour long, it will take 1 hour to digitize it. Patrons using the Memory Cart should stay with their materials while they are being digitized. Plan ahead, bring a book or another project that can be worked on while you wait.

The Laptop on the Memory Cart is not connected to the internet. You will need to bring the following to save your files to bring home:

- USB Flash Drive or USB external storage device for photographs and digitized VHS
- SD/SDHC card no larger than 32GB to save 8mm/Super8 film

What can be digitized using the Library's Memory Cart?

The Laconia Public Library's Memory Cart is equipped with:

- Laptop
- VHS Vidbox Converter and VCR so you can digitize your home movies
- Epson flatbed photo scanner for your photographs, mounted slides, 35mm negatives, and medium format negatives.
- Wolverine 8mm/Super 8 digitizer that saves footage from 8mm film/Super 8 reels

The cart is equipped with easy-to-follow instructions for each device and staff may be available to assist as needed.

The Library is not responsible for any damages incurred to patron materials during the use of the Memory Cart.

Local History Room

The Local History room contains many resources for historical and genealogical research. Included in this collection are:

- Laconia City Directories
- Town histories
- Laconia town reports
- Laconia High School yearbooks
- Genealogies
- Cemetery records
- Environmental reports

Anyone is welcome to use the Local History Room to conduct local history or genealogical research. To access the room and its collection, please sign in with a staff member at the main circulation desk.

Climbing the Family Tree

Climb the family tree with the Evening Non-Fiction Book Group as we read a selection of books that explore the topics of genealogy, what it means to be family, and the complexity of ancestry. The group will meet on the first Thursday of every month at 6:00 pm in Rotary Hall Auditorium.

Evening Non-Fiction Book Group: "Ancestor Trouble: A Reckoning and Reconciliation" by Maud Newton

Thursday, August 10

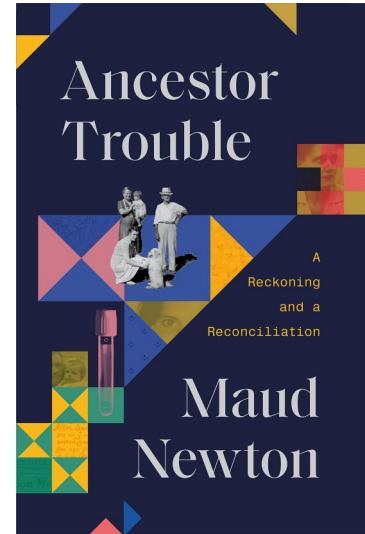

6pm

Laconia Rotary Hall Auditorium

Adults

Maud Newton's ancestors have vexed and fascinated her since she was a girl. Her mother's father was said to have married thirteen times and been shot by one of his wives. Mental illness and religious fanaticism percolated through Maud's maternal lines back to an ancestor accused of being a witch in Puritan-era Massachusetts. Maud's father, an aerospace engineer turned lawyer, was an educated man who extolled the virtues of slavery and obsessed over the "purity" of his family bloodline, which he traced back to the Revolutionary War. This questionable pairing led to a chaotic childhood replete with thirty rescue cats, and a church in the family's living room where she performed exorcisms. Maud's anxiety over her genetic lineage led her down the path of genealogical research and the reckoning that comes with healing generational trauma.

Sign-up for the book group is required, copies of the book are available at the Library. Call: (603) 524-4775 or Email: info@laconialibrary.org to register; held in the Laconia Rotary Hall Auditorium.

Mystery Book Club: "The Paris Apartment" by Lucy Foley

Wednesday, August 9

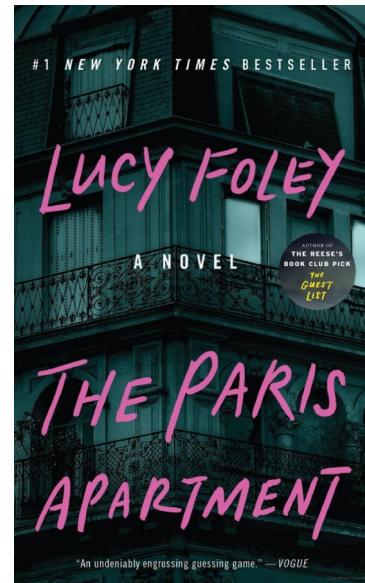

4pm

Laconia Rotary Hall Auditorium

Adults

Jess needs a fresh start. She's broke and alone, and she's just left her job under less than ideal circumstances. Her half-brother Ben didn't sound thrilled when she asked if she could crash with him for a bit, but he didn't say no, and surely everything will look better from Paris. Only when she shows up – to find a very nice apartment, could Ben really have afforded this? – he's not there. The longer Ben stays missing, the more Jess starts to dig into her brother's situation, and the more questions she has.

Sign-up for the book club is required, copies of the book are available at the Library. Call: (603) 524-4775 or Email: info@laconialibrary.org to register; held in the Laconia Rotary Hall Auditorium.

The third in a four-part workshop series, this class will include discussion of DNA testing, including the pros and cons of testing, types of information that can be derived from DNA, major DNA testing sites, how to examine DNA matches, and how to use this information in your research. These workshops are led by Ginny Martin, a retired librarian and software engineer with her Certificate of Genealogical Research from the Boston University Center for Professional Education.

Sign-up is required for each of the four sessions. These workshops will take place every other Wednesday, beginning July 5th and ending August 16th, and will build off of each other. To register call: (603) 524-4775 or email: info@laconialibrary.org.

Family History Research Workshop Week 4: Beyond the Basics

Wednesday, August 16

6pm

Laconia Rotary Hall Auditorium

Adults

The last in a four-part workshop series, this class will explore other considerations for researching your family history, including talking to family about your research, using libraries, archives and repositories, visiting local genealogical and historical societies, using family photos, bibles, and other resources, research trips, available webinars and online educational resources and documentation tools. These workshops are led by Ginny Martin, a retired librarian, and software engineer with her Certificate of Genealogical Research from the Boston University Center for Professional Education.

Sign-up is required for each of the four sessions. These workshops will take place every other Wednesday, beginning July 5th and ending August 16th, and will build off of each other. To register call: (603) 524-4775 or email: info@laconialibrary.org.

An Evening with Author Charles Doane: The Boy Who Fell to Shore: The Extraordinary Life and Mysterious Disappearance of Thomas Thor Tangvald

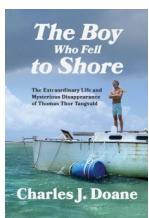

Thursday, August 31

6pm

Laconia Rotary Hall Auditorium

Adults

Join us for an evening with local author Charles J. Doane as he presents his latest book, The Boy Who Fell to Shore: The Extraordinary Life and Mysterious Disappearance of Thomas Thor Tangvald. Charles J. Doane tracks Thomas and his father, Peter, a renowned but controversial sailor, and author, across thousands of ocean miles through intimate interviews, personal correspondence, documentary research, and first-hand experience of the tropical anchorages and passage routes they frequented. This biography is by turns inspiring, terrifying, beautiful, and infuriating as Doane deftly explores the great cost of living freely at the whim of wind and water.

Charles J Doane is an accomplished bluewater sailor and longtime sailing journalist. He will share photos of Thomas Tangvald and his family and read a few short passages.

Copies of the book will be available for purchase and signing after the event.

Notary

The Laconia Public Library offers Notary Public Services for the benefit of the residents of our community. The services of a Notary Public are available for free to all Laconia Residents and Laconia Public Library cardholders. Non-Residents who do not have an active Laconia Public Library card will be charged a fee of $2.

It is recommended that customers seeking Notary Service call the Library prior to their visit to ensure that a Notary is available at that time. The Library can be reached by calling (603) 524-4775. Library Notaries are only available during the Library's hours of operation. The Laconia Public Library cannot guarantee a Notary Public will be available upon request.

Notary service is limited to three documents per person, per visit. The document must be completely filled out, leaving no blanks other than where the customer will sign the document, before appearing before the Library Notary. Library Notaries may, at their sole discretion, decline to provide Notary Service.

Note: The Library does not notarize wills.
