Join New Hampshire Humanities to read and celebrate Andrew Krivak's "The Bear" From September 1st-November 30th, 2023

Set in a post-apocalyptic future, The Bear is a story of the last two people on earth—a father and daughter. The novel explores powerful themes about the importance of intergenerational storytelling, our complicated relationship with the environment, and how to prepare for an unknown future.

An initiative of the National Endowment for the Arts, in partnership with Arts Midwest, a Big Read broadens our understanding of our world, our communities, and ourselves through the power of a shared reading experience.

Laconia Public Library will be hosting two special events as part of the Big Read. A scholar-led book discussion, facilitated by Mohamed Defaa, will be held on Wednesday, October 11 at 6:00 pm to discuss The Bear by Andrew Krivak.

Free copies of the book will be available for pick up at the Library in September.

Laconia Public Library will also be partnering with the New Hampshire Astronomical Society to host a Night Sky Watch in the Library Garden on Thursday, October 19 at 6:00 pm, (rain date Thursday, October 26 at 6:00 pm).

For a complete list of Big Read partner organizations and events, visit <http://www.nhhumanities.org/bigread>, or contact New Hampshire Humanities at (603) 224-4071 or email info@nhhumanities.org.

NEA Big Read is a program of the National Endowment for the Arts in partnership with Arts Midwest.

Book Clubs

Evening Non-Fiction Book Group: "Agent Josephine: American Beauty, French Hero, British Spy" by Damien Lewis

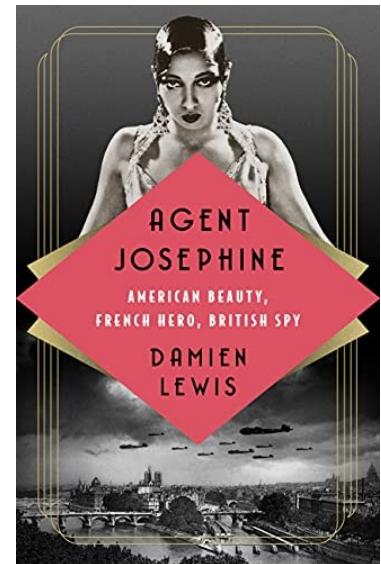

Thursday, September 7

6pm

Laconia Rotary Hall Auditorium

Adults

The Evening Nonfiction Book Group will meet to discuss "Agent Josephine: American Beauty, French Hero, British Spy" by Damien Lewis. Josephine Baker was a singer, actress, beauty, and Allied Spy in Occupied France. In Agent Josephine, bestselling author Damien Lewis uncovers this little-known history of the famous singer's life. During the war years, as a member of the French Nurse paratroopers—a cover for her spying work—Baker participated in numerous clandestine activities and emerged as a formidable spy. In turn, she was a hero of the three countries in whose name she served—the US, France, and Britain.

Sign-up for the book group is required, copies of the book are available at the Library. Call: (603) 524-4775 or Email: info@laconialibrary.org to register; held in the Laconia Rotary Hall Auditorium.

Mystery Book Club: "Lavender House" by Lev AC Rosen

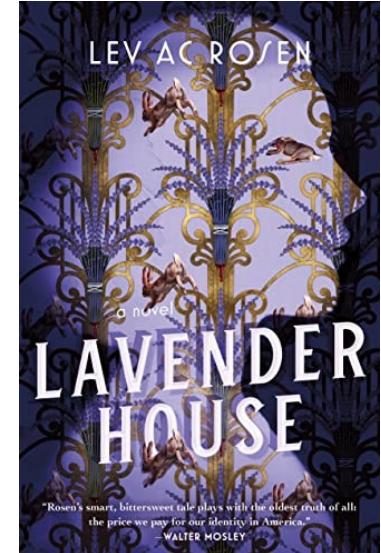

Wednesday, September 13

4pm

Laconia Rotary Hall Auditorium

Adults

Join us for a discussion of "Lavender House" by Lev AC Rosen. - In 1952 San Francisco, the fabulously wealthy and mysterious Lamontaines, are all queer and live a safe but secluded life thanks to their fortune. PI Evander Mills, who was recently fired from the local police force after getting caught at a gay bar during a raid, has been hired to uncover who killed the Lamontaine matriarch. He'll have to resist the lure of the family's glamour and relative freedom to figure out which of them is the murderer.

Sign-up for the book club is required, copies of the book are available at the Library. Call: (603) 524-4775 or Email: info@laconialibrary.org to register; held in the Laconia Rotary Hall Auditorium.

New Adult Programs

Writing Group

Wednesday, September 6

6pm

Laconia Rotary Hall Auditorium

Adults

Join us for the inaugural meeting of our writing group! Whether you have had work published, or never written more than a grocery list, if you are interested in writing and want to meet other people who share that interest then this is the place for you! Each month we will do a short (5-10 minute) writing prompt, discuss what it is we've been working on (or would like to start writing), and what issues we face when we try to write but the words just aren't flowing. With occasional guest speakers and suggested reading, this group is geared towards getting you to put pen to paper and use writing as both a creative outlet and a mindfulness tool. Sharing your work will be completely voluntary at every step of the way. We are writing for ourselves first and foremost.

Please be sure to bring the writing implement/s of your choice: pen and paper, laptop, tablet. No sign-up is required.

Fantastic Fiction Book Group: "Shrines of Gaiety" by Kate Atkinson

Tuesday, September 19

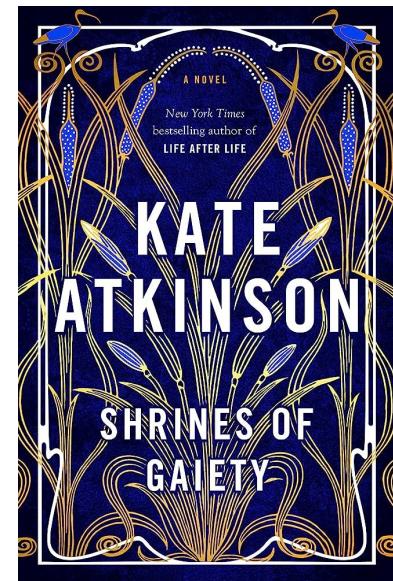

10am

Laconia Rotary Hall Auditorium

Adults

Join us for Fantastic Fiction, a new book group run by several Laconia Library staff members. Fantastic Fiction will explore different genres in fiction and meet monthly to discuss the book they read. This month the group will read and discuss "Shrines of Gaiety" by Kate Atkinson.

Sign-up for the book group is required, copies of the book are available at the Library. Call: (603) 524-4775 or Email: info@laconialibrary.org to register; held in the Laconia Rotary Hall Auditorium.

New Hampshire War Monuments

Wednesday, September 13

6pm

Laconia Rotary Hall Auditorium

Adults

A heartbroken Danish sculptor gives a gift without measure to the town where his late wife enjoyed summers. A daughter pays tribute to her father, killed in the War Between the States. A father's mourning for his son lost at sea in the Second World War, becomes a symbol of hope for all of New Hampshire. Join us to hear these stories and more, as Kathleen D. Bailey and Sheila R. Bailey explore war monuments throughout our state. From the border with Canada to the border with Massachusetts, we'll look at the way the Granite State honors those who made the supreme sacrifice. Kathleen Bailey is a native of Concord and has spent 35 years in journalism, with bylines from the Union Leader, Exeter News-Letter, Nutfield News, and Londonderry Times. She is the author of several historical fiction titles with Pelican/White Rose Publishing. Sheila Bailey is a freelance photographer living in Concord. No sign-up is required.

Saving Energy and Money Heating and Cooling Your Home with Wes Golomb

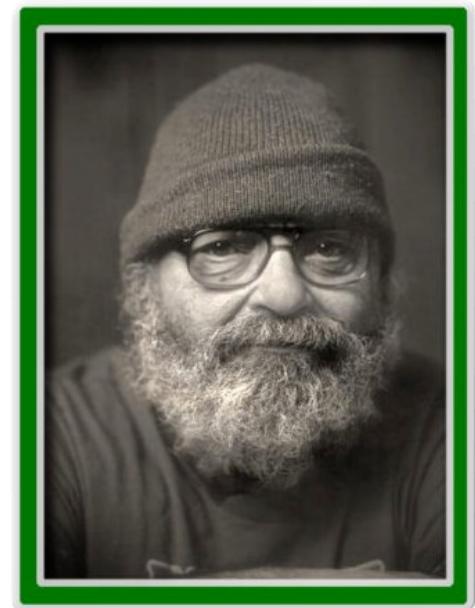

Thursday, September 14

6-7:30pm

Laconia Rotary Hall Auditorium

Adults

High electricity and fuel bills taking a bite out of your wallet? Want to learn how to save money by saving energy? Wes Golomb, clean energy expert and author of the new book and video series "Warm and Cool Homes, Building a Comfy, Healthy, NetZero Home You'll Want to Live in Forever" will share his expertise on ways to help you save money on your energy bills and create a more comfortable home. As the former Energy Conservation Coordinator of New Hampshire's Public Utilities Commission and founder of the first Energy Services degree program in the Northeast, Wes Golomb will cover a wide range of topics from sealing leaks to heat pumps. Whether you are looking to build or retrofit your home to become "net-zero," or simply want to learn ways to cut your energy bill and get help paying for it, join us to hear from a respected energy leader.

Understanding Homelessness in New Hampshire

Thursday, September 21

6pm

Laconia Rotary Hall Auditorium

Adults

What factors are responsible for the rise in homelessness? What are the historical forces that led to this national crisis? Homelessness has become a problem for many communities in New Hampshire. It is a preventable problem but most of the strategies communities have used to prevent and address it haven't worked well. Dr. Vissing will present Understanding Homelessness in NH which examines the history of homelessness and commonly used approaches to understand it and do something about it. Dr. Vissing was awarded a National Institute of Mental Health Post-Doctoral Research Fellowship. She is an expert in the area of homeless children and youth and works closely with the National Coalition for the Homeless. Dr. Vissing is the founder of Salem State University's Center for Child Studies and is active on the international level working for children's well-being.

"Quetico Connection": An evening with author John Doelman

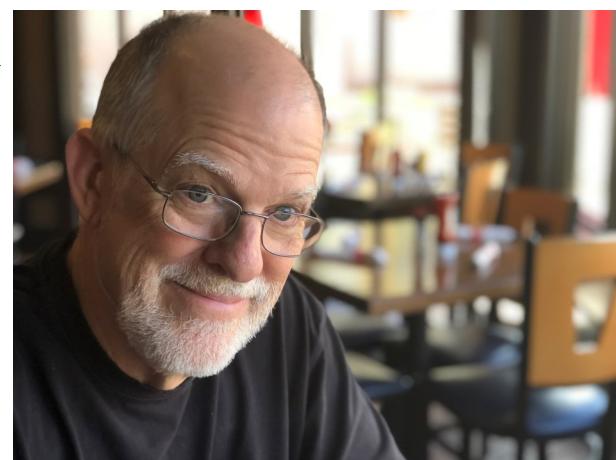

Thursday, September 28

6-7:30pm

Laconia Rotary Hall Auditorium

Adults

Author John Doelman will share his newly published book of poetry and nature photography, "Quetico Connection." Doelman crafted this beautiful and deeply personal collection of poems and nature photography while traveling by canoe in Ontario's Quetico Provincial Park. "Quetico Connection" brings the personal experience of wilderness canoe tripping to you through introspective poetry and connecting photography. Beauty and perfection abound in the symmetry of pristine wilderness. "Quetico Connection" uses that catalyst in discovering the spiritual relationship that innately lives within nature.
