Laconia Public Library Upcoming Events.....

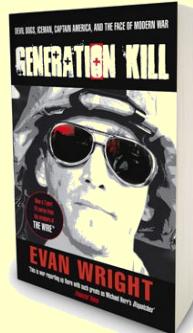

‘Tis the Season for Giving

This holiday season the local Laconia St. Vincent DePaul Food Pantry is very much in need of assistance. The Food Pantry routinely serves over 365 families a month and the holiday season is especially difficult. The Laconia Public Library urges you to help by donating canned goods (vegetables, fruits, tuna fish, stews, juices, pasta, etc.) to the bin located at the main circulation desk of the Library. Since the Library does not charge overdue fines, we ask instead that you please bring in a canned item for the Food Pantry. Please help us help others in need this holiday season.

Thank you very much!

Fall Book Discussion Series: “Life During War Times: Exploring War Through Literature

The fourth and final discussion in the Laconia Public Library's fall series "Life During War Times: Exploring War Through Literature" will take place on Tuesday, Dec. 3 @ 7 pm in Laconia Rotary Hall and will focus on the title Generation Kill, by Evan Wright. Wright was a part of a platoon of highly trained and motivated First Recon Marines, the leading unit of the American-led invasion force in Iraq. The book is a readable and insightful look at the Iraq War's first month from the Marine grunt's point of view and presents a vivid, well-drawn picture of the men fighting in action on the front lines in the opening round of the Iraq War. Copies of the book are available to check out at the Library's main circulation desk.

Upcoming Meetings...

Speak Up

A message from our Elementary School Nurses

As winter is here, please ensure that your child is dressed appropriately for the cold! A jacket, hat and gloves/mittens (snow pants and boots when snow comes) are necessary to participate in outdoor activities. It is also a good idea to pack a pair of shoes to change into while at school. It is important to keep your child bundled up while outside to help prevent illness and injury. If you need help getting winter clothes and boots for your child, please contact the nurse or guidance counselor for assistance!
