Introduction to Ancestry Library Edition Wed., Nov. 18 at 2 PM

Are you interested in learning more about your ancestors? Ancestry Library Edition (ALE) is the largest online family history resource available, and it's available at your Library for free!

The focus of this class will be on what genealogical records are available in ALE and how best to search them. Students will learn the skills needed to search ALE on their own. Students must be able to comfortably navigate a website and use a mouse for clicking.
Class is on the upper level of the Library in the Reference Room. Please call 524-4775 ext. 12 to sign-up as space is limited.

Upcoming Meetings...

Keeping the public updated and aware of what's going on in our community and receiving residents' feedback is an important goal of the City Council. Check each week's issue of Laconia Links for a schedule of the upcoming week's meetings. As agendas become available, they will be posted to the City's website.

You can also contact any of the City's departments for more information on a meeting or to obtain a printed copy of the agenda. Meetings are open to the public. You are invited and encouraged to attend and provide input.

Laconia Middle School

Laconia Middle School's PRIDE Athletes of the week: Mikaela Harasko, is a 7th grader on the A Volleyball team and Coach Mingo's selection for this week's honor. Mikaela has been a constant model of sportsmanship and team player. She is a major reason why her team finished with key wins to wrap up their season.

Nathan Cammack, is an 8th grader on the LMS Football team and Coach Schofield's selection for this week's award. Nathan stepped in to play QB this season and helped his team finish with a 9-1 record, including a victory over Plymouth.

Laconia School District's Project EXTRA

Project EXTRA is busy impacting the lives of youth and families. ELO's, LHS Strong Club, Lights On Afterschool, Family Bingo Night, Freedom Found, Thanksgiving Baskets, are just a few things happening in November. Read more about what's going on in afterschool here!

Pet of the Week: Downee

Her name is short for Down Under – a nod to the Australians - Downee to her closest friends, which is the first cute thing about this pretty as a picture tabby and white feline aged about ten years young.

Consider too, she has been at New Hampshire Humane Society since August 2014 – 444 days waiting and hoping for a forever home.

Downee spent some time in a foster home which really helped her remember the comforts of a home and human laps to cuddle on, not to mention she showed how much she enjoys visiting with people; your house guests will be completely enamored with her friendly demeanor and feline charms.

Sweet Downee has been overlooked for far too long. Yes, you may have heard her story before back in May – we are banking that a second re-telling will seal the deal for her as she wishes for a permanent home this holiday season.

Dr. Daniel Heyduk, an anthropologist and historian, presents a visual program on Meredith/Laconia history, based on his book “Meredith Chronicles,” Monday, Nov. 23 at 6:30 p.m. in Taylor Community’s Woodside Building. The event is free and open to the public, but reservations are requested by calling 524-5600.

His book is a history of Meredith from the nomadic hunters of 12,000 years ago to the Twentieth Century. It includes land speculators, hardy settlers, mill-builders and mill-workers, advancing women, an almanac-maker and a hermit. It shows how people in Meredith and Laconia handled the “Year without a Summer,” the sheep boom, coming of the railroad and steam-boats, tourists and summer campers and the Hurricane of 1938.

Doctor Heyduk was a college professor who lived with native people in Mexico and Bolivia; he did archaeology in Ecuador and managed educational programs worldwide. He writes the “Passing Time” local history column in the Meredith News.
