Thursday, Oct. 29th
@ 3pm in
Laconia Rotary Hall
"Hotel Transylvania"
Rated PG

Welcome to the Hotel Transylvania, Dracula's lavish five-star resort where monsters and their families can live it up, free to be the monsters they are without humans to bother them. On one special weekend, Dracula has invited some of the world's most famous monsters - Frankenstein and his wife, the Mummy, the Invisible Man, a family of werewolves, and more - to celebrate his daughter Mavis' 18th birthday. Admission is free!

Our popular Halloween Storytime programs are coming next week! Dress in your favorite costume, bring a snack to share, listen to some spooktacular Halloween stories, and do a fun craft!

Choose one of these three times: ...

Wednesday, Oct. 28th at 10 am (for birth-5 year-olds);
Thursday, Oct. 29th at 9:30 am (for birth-3 year-olds);
Thursday, Oct. 29th at 10:30 am (for 3-5 year-olds).

Upcoming Meetings...

Keeping the public updated and aware of what's going on in our community and receiving residents' feedback is an important goal of the City Council. Check each week's issue of Laconia Links for a schedule of the upcoming week's meetings. As agendas become available, they will be posted to the City's website.

You can also contact any of the City's departments for more information on a meeting or to obtain a printed copy of the agenda. Meetings are open to the public. You are invited and encouraged to attend and provide input.

Follow this link to the "Calendar" page of the City of Laconia's website. Click on a specific meeting for more information.

Please check the "Calendar" page often for updated info and changes.

School Board Retiree

Mr. Cormier, School Board Chairperson, was recognized Tuesday night during the School Board meeting for his dedication of 12 years of service to the Laconia School District. Tuesday night was Mr. Cormier's final meeting as a School Board Member. We thank him for his continued support to not just the School Board/District but to the Laconia Community.

Estate, Wills, Trust and Guardianship Planning

Laconia Attorney Scott McGuffin will present an informative and interactive program on Estates, Wills, Trusts and Guardianship Planning, Thursday, Oct. 29 at 6:30 p.m. at Taylor Community's Woodside Building. The event is free and open to the public, but RSVPs are requested by calling 366-1203.

The program will touch on the following subjects:

- Description of New Hampshire's court system with emphasis on the Probate Division of the Circuit Court
- Clinical versus legal competency
- Overview of guardianships and the process for obtaining one
- Powers of Attorney for health care and finances
- Living Wills and why they're important
- Decedent's estates
- Trust types and benefits
- Overview of Medicaid and comparison to Medicare

McGuffin's Law Office focuses on Elder Law, Guardianships, Estate Administration and Probate Law. He's a graduate of the University of NH and Franklin Pierce Law Center. He was admitted into the practice of law in New Hampshire and the Federal District Court of New Hampshire in 1982.

IKEBANA SPECIALIST, ANTOINETTE DROUART, TO VISIT OPECHEE GARDEN CLUB

Award-winning Ikebana artist and teacher, Antoinette Drouart, will present a lecture and demonstration of "The Art of Ikebana" to the Opechee Garden Club, on Monday, November 2, 2015, at 1:00 p.m., at the Gilford Community Church, 19 Potter Hill Road, in Gilford.

Ms. Drouart's artistic interests, combined with her love of flowers and their therapeutic values, led her to study and eventually teach the art of Japanese flower arrangement and designs. While living abroad in Japan she received formal training in Japanese flower arrangements, and certificates from the Ikebana Sogetsu School, headquartered in Tokyo, Japan. She was also honored and awarded an official Japanese flower name, "Hoshi", whose English meaning is "Purple Iris".

Upon returning to the United States from Japan, Antoinette opened her own boutique, "Ikebana Flower", in Nashua, New Hampshire, where she offered exotic seasonal flowers, unique Ikebana containers and other supplies, as well as classes. During this time her boutique was the recipient of the Best New Exhibitor, the Michael Wirth Memorial Trophy, at the 2005 New Hampshire Orchid Society Show, was the Editor's Pick for Best Exotic Floral Arrangements in New Hampshire Magazine, and was listed in their Best of New Hampshire issue. In both 2006 and 2007, the New Hampshire Orchid Society Show awarded the "Ikebana Flower" boutique the trophy for best Artistic Display.

Though Antoinette has retired from the boutique, she continues her interest in the art of Ikebana through demonstrations, special events, such as weddings and corporate accounts where she creates Ikebana arrangements for the workplace.

Opechee Garden Club Hospitality Chairs Eleanor Swain and Louise Osburn and their Committee Members Fran Crawford, Gayle Green, Ginnie Johnson, Esther Kratochvil, Patti Litchfield, Marilyn Lynch, Gladys McGaughey, Joyce McMath, Florence Merrill, Evelyn Millar, and Joni Stover will provide refreshments and table décor. Club members and their guests are encouraged to arrive early, 12:30 - 1:00 p.m., to chat and mingle with friends before the Business Meeting begins at 1:00 p.m.

Founded in Laconia in 1939, the Opechee Garden Club meets on the first Monday of most months at 1:00 p.m., at the Gilford Community Church, 19 Potter Hill Road, in the Village of Gilford. Opechee Garden Club is a member of the New Hampshire Federation of Garden Clubs, Inc., the New England Region, and the National Garden Club, Inc. New members are welcomed.

Forum: Nov. 11th 5-7pm.

The Laconia Motorcycle Week Association is hosting a public forum on November 11th from 5-7pm at the Belknap Mill in downtown Laconia. This forum presents an opportunity for residents, business owners, and motorcycle enthusiasts to ask Rally-related questions to our Motorcycle Week panel and to learn about the Association's marketing efforts for 2016. Additional details will be announced as we get closer to the event. Follow-up information and an RSVP will be released via email, through our Official Laconia Motorcycle Week Rally Face Book page, and in our local newspapers. If you have any questions, please contact Jennifer Anderson at info@laconiamcweek.com. If you can't make this forum, please feel free to email questions or comments to Jennifer. Please pass along this announcement to anyone you think may be interested!

Part II of Chaucer's Prologue to "The Canterbury Tales"

In a society based on class structure, Geoffrey Chaucer lived between the lines. Although not of noble blood, Chaucer married well. His sister-in-law was the mistress and later the wife of John of Gaunt, the 1st Duke of Lancaster.

Phyllis Benoit, retired teacher and mediator, recently took attendees on Part 1 of this risqué pilgrimage through the middle ages with the good, the bad and the ugly. She'll present Part II Thursday, Oct. 28 at 3 p.m. at Taylor Community's Woodside Building. The event is free, but seating is limited. Please RSVP to 524-5600, by noon Oct. 28.

The class is part of the Fall Curriculum at Osher Life-Long Learning (OLLI) at Granite State College. Copies of the reading will be given to all participants.

The Laconia Police Department would like to wish everyone a Happy Halloween! All of us encourage you to follow our safety tips so you can help us make this Halloween a more enjoyable one for everyone.

- Set time limits for children to trick or treat (Laconia Trick or Treat hours: 5:00-8:00pm)
- Remind children not to enter a stranger's house or car
- Wear white or reflective clothing
- Inspect candy before eating
- Always be aware of your surroundings.

Be sure to say hello to our officers who will be patrolling your neighborhoods on bicycles, foot and cruisers!
