Department and is free of charge.

Adult Book Discussion Series

Coming to the Library this fall: Murder They Wrote: a mystery series over 4 months and 4 books starting September 12.

The first book in the series is In the Woods
by Tana French; it is available at the Library.

Upcoming Meetings...

Keeping the public updated and aware of what's going on in our community and receiving residents' feedback is an important goal of the City Council. Check each week's issue of Laconia Links for a schedule of the upcoming week's meetings. As agendas become available, they will be posted to the City's website.

You can also contact any of the City's departments for more information on a meeting or to obtain a printed copy of the agenda. Meetings are open to the public. You are invited and encouraged to attend and provide input.

The City Council is requesting input on the rental of Boardwalk vendor spaces during Motorcycle Week. Specifically, whether spaces at the end of the Boardwalk should be utilized for food vendors, and whether the City should look to expand other rental space along the Boardwalk or Lakeside Avenue.

Please plan to attend the City Council meeting on Aug. 28 at 7 pm, City Hall, Room 200A to share your ideas regarding revenue producing opportunities to support Motorcycle Week without spending taxpayer dollars. Written comments are also welcome by submitting to the City Manager's Office, City of Laconia, 45 Beacon St. E., Laconia, NH 03246 or e-mail to NBrown@laconianh.gov by August 22. We look forward to hearing from you!

1st Annual Strengthening Community Walk of the Lakes Region

Friday, Sept 8th
5:00pm
Bartlett Beach, Laconia

Please help us by joining our 1st Annual "Strengthening Community of the Lakes Region" Walk. We are seeking to raise $10,000 for a Rainy Day Fund. This money will be used to assist individuals in paying for un-reimbursed costs associated with their efforts to seek recovery from substance use and co-occurring disorders. Examples of needed services include:

- Temporary housing / shelter for individuals and families
- Pre-Admission physicals for inpatient rehab
- Transportation to inpatient rehab or recovery appointments
- Financial assistance with rehab scholarships

City Manager Updates

Two new updates have been posted to the City's website to keep you up-to-date and informed on what's happening in your City!

First, take a look at the updated Financial & Operational Trends report. In this document you'll find financial information for the current year compared to prior years in several departments, such as fire and rescue call data, revenue from motor vehicle registrations and property taxes, police incidents, overtime costs and much more! Next, check out the current version of the Monthly Economic Development Report. This report contains information pertaining to Laconia's unemployment rate and wages, as well as business and economic development partnerships.

BELKNAP MILL

WHERE ARTS AND HISTORY COME TO LIFE

Pumpkin Festival on October 14th. The NH Pumpkin Festival is a community-hosted, family friendly celebration of fall and all that is unique about New Hampshire. The festival draws thousands of people to the downtown area and offers great visibility to all organizations that participate in the event.

The "Great Pumpkin Cook-Off" will be held in Riverside Rotary Park from 2-4 p.m. The entry fee is $60 for non-profit organizations and Belknap Mill members and $75 for non-members. Use of electricity will require an additional fee of $10. All entries must have pumpkin as the main ingredient. All proceeds will benefit the Belknap Mill's engaging programming for children and adults and to support our mission to preserve the Belknap Mill as a unique historic gathering place and to celebrate the Lakes Region's cultural heritage through the arts, education and civic engagement. Please visit www.belknapmill.org for the Rules and Regulations and applications. Inquires can be directed to Jennifer McLean, Events & Program Coordinator at programs@belknapmill.org or 524-8813.
