Laconia Fire Department

Link to Fire
Dept.'s
Website here

September has been declared the National Preparedness Month. The focus is on planning for unusual events such as major storms. The theme this year is "Disasters don't plan ahead. You can". Your public safety departments – fire, police, and public works – work together all year long to develop response plans for special events, as well as prepare for the various weather events that we can face.

Residents should do the same. You can develop a family plan that is interchangeable no matter what causes the disruption in life. A hurricane and a blizzard have a similar impact on a community, except, a blizzard is colder. One way to help yourself is to volunteer for the Community Emergency Response Team (CERT) training program. A class will be scheduled later this year. Notices will be posted in the Links and newspapers.

It is recommended that you have an emergency kit with a 3-day supply of important items: 1 gallon of drinking water per person per day, canned food preferably with the self-opening lid, a small LP fired grill for cooking – never bring the grill indoors as it is a carbon monoxide gas hazard, prescriptions and medications, phone call list, flashlight and batteries and a radio. It is difficult to keep a supply of medications for planning, but it is essential to keep a list of all of your important medications and prescriptions so that if a major storm hits you can at least get them refilled. Remember, this could take a few days to get done.

Each family should have a basic escape plan from their home in the event of a fire. How will you get out of the house? What are the alternative ways out? Where will everyone meet after getting out? Don't go back in—wait for the Fire Department.

Families should also develop a communication plan so that if you are not together during an emergency each person knows what to do. Use text messaging in lieu of cell calling as text messages will get through even at times when phones are busy. Set up a calling tree – each person is responsible to make calls or texts to certain people. Be sure to have a written list with all phone numbers listed – work, school, cell, home, etc. Place the written list in your wallet or purse, or on the refrigerator door. If your cell phone does not work you will lose the contacts.

“Mark Twain Erupts” at Taylor Community

Mark Twain was one of the most prolific and acerbic commentators on religion and politics of his time. His words are remarkably relevant to today's headlines, more than 115 years after his death. Twain also knew how to poke fun at himself, a refreshing talent sadly lacking in most public figures today. Inspired by Hal Holbrook's performances as Mark Twain, Jim Ketcham portrays the iconic American author Monday, Aug. 28 at 6:30 p.m. at Taylor Community's Woodside Building. A question and answer session follows the performance. This free event is open to the public.

Ketcham began performing as Mark Twain at Chicago Theological Seminary in 1979. He went on to perform for many conferences, churches and civic groups over the years. He is an ordained American Baptist minister. Ketcham currently serves as Executive Director of FOCUS Churches of Albany, a united effort by six congregations from four different Protestant denominations that seek to address poverty and hunger in Albany and beyond through charity and justice.

MUSIC ON THE RIVER CONCERT SERIES

BELKNAP MILL

WHERE ARTS AND HISTORY COME TO LIFE

Annie & the Orphans at the Belknap Mill

The Belknap Mill is excited to present the Annie & the Orphans Band on Friday, August 25 from 6:30 p.m. – 8:00 p.m. in Rotary Riverside Park and Gazebo located behind the Mill. This concert series is generously sponsored by the Putnam Fund to provide the citizens of the greater Laconia area the opportunity to gather and enjoy musical talents in the heart of downtown Laconia.

One of New England's favorite rock and roll acts, Annie & the Orphans have been entertaining fans, young and old, for over 50 years. Their mission is simple but admirable. "Please the crowds. Make them feel good. Make them happy." A specialist in 50s, 60s and 70s rock and roll, the band entertains audience members with songs such as "The Wanderer", "Mustang Sally" and "Rock around the Clock". Annie and the Orphan's blend of unique talent and showmanship make them one of the most eagerly anticipated acts around.

This is a free event that is open to the public. "We invite concert goers to join us inside the Belknap Mill after the show to enjoy lemonade and cupcakes provided by Ooo La La Creative Cakes," says Events and Program Coordinator, Jennifer McLean. Should there be inclement weather the show will be held on the third floor of the Belknap Mill at 25 Beacon Street East in Laconia. For a listing of the artists, visit the Belknap Mill website at www.belknapmill.org, or find them on Facebook.

Musical Performance by Peg and Cheryl

Taylor Community is proud to have a return performance by the talented duo of Peg Chaffee and Cheryl Sager, Wednesday, Aug. 30 at 6:30 p.m. in the Woodside Building.

Their performance includes contemporary folk music with stand-up bass, guitar, pennywhistle and exquisite harmonies. Their original music speaks to all aspects of everyday life, from whimsical to poignant, serious to silly. Sometimes irreverent, but never rude, they appeal to all audiences!

The Belknap Mill and Fusion Present "A Night of Comedy"

Stand-up comedy comes to The Belknap Mill on Saturday, August 26th at 8 p.m. with nationally known, top rated comics Paul Landwehr, Kelly McFarland and Steve Scarfo.

All comedians are funny and ready to make you laugh...laugh...laugh!!!

Paul Landwehr is an up-and-coming comedian who has worked with comedy legends such as, Gilbert Gottfried, Justin McKinney, Godfrey, Robert Kelly, Emma Willmann, Lenny Clarke and Steve Sweeney! You may have seen him at Laugh Boston or Broadway Comedy Club in New York City or maybe somewhere in between!

Kelly McFarland is an accomplished improviser. She has performed with Fred Willard, Laura Hall and has been a resident cast member of the ImprovBoston National Touring Company since 2014. Kelly is currently writing a clever collection of short stories based on her stand-up comedy and her life. She captivates the crowd with her charm, and her refreshing yet playful point of view makes her irresistible.

Steve Scarfo is a 20 year veteran of the Boston comedy scene and was noticed by The Boston Globe at his first performance. His high energy, real life approach to material, coupled with his sometimes bizarre viewpoint is sure to strike a chord in any audience and keep them in stitches. He has worked all over New England, including Comedy Connection in Boston and Portland, Nick's Comedy Stop in Boston, Laugh Boston, Comix and North Shore Comedy.

Tickets for the show can be purchased by contacting the Belknap Mill at 524-8813, visiting www.belknapmill.org , www.fusionnh.org or purchased at the door on the night of the show. Doors for the show open at 7 p.m. and a cash bar will be provided by Great Events Catering.
