Please join us in gathering food and supplies for families in need this November and December. Our goal is to fill two laundry baskets each month. These will be located in the children's room, along with a suggested donation list.

The baskets will be dropped off at St. Vincent de Paul's food pantry. If each of us gives a little, it will help a lot!

Questions?

Please ask Gail in the Children's Room, or call 524-4775 x 17.

ADULT BOOKCLUB: "FLOWERING JUDAS" BY JANE HADDAM

Tuesday, November 7 @ 7pm
Laconia Rotary Hall

Hello all you armchair sleuths out there. Get ready for our fall discussion series Murder They Wrote. This series will feature four mystery novels so put on your deerstalker caps and figure out whodunit before the end of the book.

Twelve years ago, Chester Morton disappeared from his hometown in Mattuck, New York, leaving no trace and never to be heard from again. For the past twelve years, his mother has kept the search for her son alive—paying for a billboard overlooking the local community college, putting up new flyers every week, hounding every law enforcement agency she can get to listen. Her determination has made his disappearance very high profile but it's also been damaging to her family, her children and to herself.

Now, Chester's body is finally found—hanging from the very billboard that has been advertising his disappearance. Chester's corpse, however, is recent—meaning that Chester had been alive, somewhere, until very recently. Under pressure and with limited resources, the local police turn to Gregor Demarkian—a former FBI agent and a frequent consultant on such cases—to try and unravel the truth buried within this very complex and tragic case and find out once and for all what really happened all those years ago.
