ADULT PROGRAMS

THE AMERICAN DREAM: DEAD OR ALIVE? BOOK DISCUSSION SERIES

How do we get from here to there, is it still possible? What if you are already there and are questioning social injustices? The four books in this series will probe personal, social, racial, and economic situations. Join us for what promises to be a thought-provoking discussion series.

HILLBILLY ELEGY BY J.D. VANCE

Tuesday, April 3

7pm

Laconia Rotary Hall

From a former marine and Yale Law School graduate, a powerful account of growing up in a poor Rust Belt town that offers a broader, probing look at the struggles of America's white working class, Hillbilly Elegy is a passionate and personal analysis of a culture in crisis—that of white working-class Americans. The decline of this group, a demographic of our country that has been slowly disintegrating over forty years, has been reported on with growing frequency and alarm but has never before been written about as searingly from the inside.

A deeply moving memoir with its share of humor and vividly colorful figures, Hillbilly Elegy is the story of how upward mobility really feels. And it is an urgent and troubling meditation on the loss of the American dream for a large segment of this country. Books are available at the circulation desk.

THE SPANISH INFLUENZA

Tuesday, April 17

6:30pm

Laconia Rotary Hall

Join us for an informative presentation by UNH Professor Marion Girard-Dorsey. The Spanish Influenza killed 20 million worldwide, at a conservation estimate, and lowered the average life expectancy in the U.S. by 12 years, yet it is a disease that few remember or know well. What was the Spanish influenza, how did it impact the U.S. and the world, how did the U.S., already fighting World War I, respond to it? Because of its impact, this pandemic is too important to forget.

WALKING EL CAMINO

Tuesday, April 24

7pm

Laconia Rotary Hall

In pictures and in words, author Christy Day shares the joys and challenges of walking El Camino de Santiago de Compostela, the 500-mile Pilgrimage across northern Spain. She walked El Camino when she was 66 and wrote a book about it, Walking From Here to There: Finding My Way on El Camino. She will share reflections, factual accounts, and practical advice.
