Laconia Cares About Peace – To celebrate the 125th birthday of the City of Laconia, lots of hands have been busy folding paper Peace Cranes – why? Because the people of Laconia care about peace! Children and adults from throughout the community have contributed to spreading the word that “Laconia Cares about Peace.” The Key Club at Laconia High School made over 600 Peace Cranes, the 6th graders at the Laconia Middle School, the 5th graders at Woodland Heights, 3rd graders at Pleasant Street School and 4th graders at Elm Street School all contributed Peace Cranes; women from The Taylor Community, men and women from Merrimack and Belknap County Jails have all helped in addition to the members and friends of the Congregational Church of Laconia who are leading the initiative. Those making the Peace Cranes were invited to pray or wish for peace in our community and the world with each Peace Crane made. The Congregational Church of Laconia will be displaying over 4,500 Peace Cranes in an artistic display beneath the bridge that connects their two buildings on Veteran’s Square.

And on July 6th from 6pm-8pm., join us at the church as we celebrate the 125th Birthday of the City of Laconia with the community and celebrate “Laconia Cares About Peace”. The display of 4,500 Peace Cranes will be revealed during that time. The church will be providing hot dogs, drinks and dessert for as long as they last; keyboarder extraordinaire Phil Bretton and the A# Foursome – Barbershop Quartet will be sharing old-time music throughout the celebration. Don’t miss it!

Over a century of love for those without a voice.

Hermit Woods continues its partnership with the NH Humane Society with its annual “Firewoods and Kittens” event

Firewood & Kittens Sale

On Saturday, June 23, from noon to 2:00 p.m. visit Hermit Woods Winery to learn about the wonderful work the NH Humane Society does, adopt a kitten, and try some of their Hermit Hard Apple Cider, and yes, there will be firewood for sale. Sticking with tradition, Hermit Woods will once again have firewood and kittens for sale (kittens for adoption really, read on). The NH Humane Society will be on hand with kittens looking for families to adopt them and provide information about the work they do to find homes for the homeless cats and dogs of the area. While there, sample some of Hermit Woods Hermit Hard Apple Cider and take a bottle or two home while supporting the Humane Society; 5% of every bottle sold will be donated to the Humane Society. To date, over $1,700 in donations have been realized from the donation of 5% of every bottle sold, and homes have been found for many young kittens, including Pinot and Noir who can be seen visiting the winery on occasion. Hermit Woods hopes to raise a lot more money for the NH Humane Society in the years to come!

The NH Humane Society is a 501(c)3 non-profit whose mission is to find responsible and caring forever homes; provide shelter for the lost, abandoned and unwanted animals; advocate and be the voice for the voiceless. The Society works hard to prevent cruelty to animals and offers education and outreach programs, pet therapy, and many community initiatives to help people and their pets. Community fundraising efforts, such as the money raised by Hermit Woods, are an integral part of keeping the shelter open and providing valuable services to the 17 communities in the NHHS area, and beyond.

Join us at Taylor's Woodside Building, Monday, June 25 at 6:30 p.m. as Jim presents his "Final Outing." Stories will include a couple of astounding phone calls; Ted, a dog, and two of their adventures; the contrary butterfly and Brookline Man, an enduring mystery. After he retired from teaching, Jim became increasingly well known as a storyteller, performing at areas schools and campgrounds, heading up the U.S. Forest Service's "Woods in Winter" storytelling program, and leading a group for Dartmouth's Institute for Life-Long Education. ## Pet of the Week: Little Rascal Rotund, portly and substantial, aptly describe the stateliness of the oddly named Little Rascal, a very handsome tabby and white cat currently calling New Hampshire Humane Society home.

Once upon a time, he probably was 'little' but this tailor-made lap cat will take up rather a lot of room, both in your heart and on the sofa. Surrendered because relocation plans did not include him, he enjoys the attention of humans, but has little experience sharing his space with dogs. This laid back boy has taken in stride the hubbub of shelter life, enjoys a daily brushing, and revels in lots of cuddle time from people,

He really would be a wonderful addition to almost any home, provided you are willing to allow him to settle in after so much upheaval in his life.

We know Rascal is a little older, but, he is robust and in good shape, if a little on the large side! Please visit him; he waits patiently for his forever home. Call 524-3252 or check www.nhhumane.org

Chickens Have Arrived at Prescott Farm!

Prescott Farm Environmental Education Center is excited to welcome chickens back to the Farm! Five chickens arrived from Orange, Massachusetts – a gift from the daughter of one of the field teachers. Settling into the new hen house are three Golden Comets and two New Hampshire Reds, all about one year old and in prime laying condition.

“I am excited to reintegrate farm animals into our programming,” says Sarah Dunham-Miliotis, Program Director at Prescott Farm. “Not only will we be able to use the eggs for some of our upcoming camps and other programs, chickens provide other benefits to a Farm, such as fertilizing the ground and insect suppression, including ticks.”

The flock will be the basis for a new volunteer service learning opportunity and public program, Keeping Chickens, taking place on Saturday, June 30, from 10am – noon. Using the small flock as a model Prescott Farm’s environmental educators will teach you about chicken housing, food and water requirements, egg collection and more. You will be ready to start your own backyard flock, or become a Prescott Farm volunteer to help take care of theirs. For more information and to register visit prescottfarm.org.

The chickens will also provide learning opportunities for Prescott Farm’s Fledglings Nature-Based Preschool and WildQuest campers, aged 4-14, at Prescott Farm’s WildQuest Camps year-round. The eggs will be used in various public programs, including the upcoming Farmhouse Kitchen series, and cooking projects with campers. Volunteers are needed to help care for the chickens year-round, and WildQuest campers and Fledglings preschoolers will also be assisting.

Prescott Farm –exploring and preserving the natural world, one adventure at a time.

Curbside recycling will be picked up the week of June 25th!

Please note that at this time it is not economically viable to recycle glass.
From now on, please place glass items in with your solid waste.

Use this guide to tour the parks in Laconia and be sure to visit all 9 playgrounds. When you have visited all 9 playgrounds (at 8 parks), have a parent sign each line under the playground checklist and bring this guide in to the Laconia Parks & Recreation office at 306 Union Avenue. The prize is a kiddie cone from HAPPY COW and will be given to all kids up to age 16 who return this guide. This program runs during the month of June only. While supplies last.

Time is running out! Make plans to explore all of the City's parks during June to receive a prize! Get out and enjoy everything our community has to offer! Questions? Call Parks and Rec. at 524-5046.
