Laconia Parks and Recreation

LACONIA PARKS RECEIVE TENNIS AND BASKETBALL COURT FACELIFTS

This summer has seen some significant improvements to our recreation courts in Laconia parks!

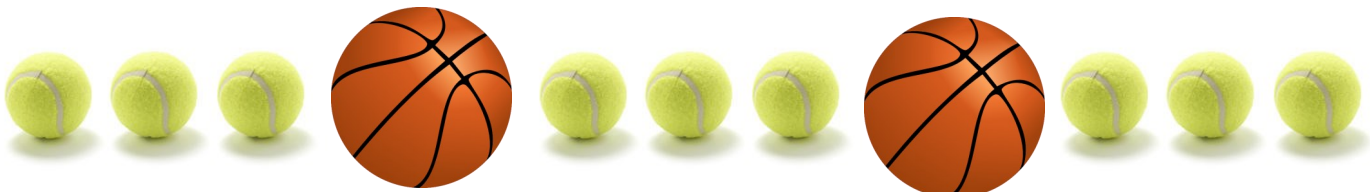

Basketball court facilities have been resurfaced at Leavitt Park, Sanborn Park and Tardif Park. The Tardif Park court also saw the return of tennis/pickle ball after a long absence as a new net system was installed. With support from the Laconia City Council and Parks and Recreation Commission, funding was made possible through development impact fees and capital outlay funds.

Additionally, the five tennis courts at Memorial Park received new youth lines painted on them with a grant the City received from the USTA (United States Tennis Association).

These additional lines will help kids learn the game on a court size that is better suited for their abilities.

If you haven't seen the improved courts, take a walk in your neighborhood or take a drive around and check them out!

Questions? Call Parks & Rec at 524-5046.

The group consists of Irene Fitzgerald-Cherry, Violetta Todorova and Viktoria Tchertchian on violin; Michael Molnau on viola; and David Goldblatt and Talia Dicker on cello. Music will include selections by Bach and Beethoven.

Musical Comedy with Jackson Gillman, August 10 at Taylor Community

While you'll be tempted – and invited – to sing along to familiar tunes with Stand-up Chameleon Jackson Gillman, you'll find many of the lyrics have been comically adulterated.

In this rollicking review of topical songs and parodies, no musical form is safe or sacred with Gillman's disorderly conduct.

He will also practice his tendency to swap personalities before your very eyes, slipping through a variety of characterizations like a veritable chameleon, which in fact he is.

Do we have your attention? Then join us Friday, Aug. 10 at 6:30 p.m. in Taylor Community's Woodside Building for all the fun. This free event is open to the public.

We hope you can join us!

Over a century of love for those without a voice.

Pet of the Week:

Angelica

Believe it or not, this gorgeous Angora rabbit awaits her forever home at New Hampshire Humane Society.

Angelica – so named by our staff – is beautiful and high maintenance and particular about her diet and her boudoir. She enjoys a daily brushing; in fact, we will demand her new home can indeed unfailingly carry out that basic but necessary task, lest she fall into disarray.

She loves a selection of bunny appropriate greens, parsley, carrots, a little kale, some timothy hay, and special rabbit food which can be purchased at well supplied local pet shops.

We are not entirely certain of Angelica's age, no well-respecting lady ever divulges that anyway.. but she is spayed and ready to go.

Come and visit her, she is a sweet girl for sure!

International Film Series - August, 2018 Films: Even the Rain & Black or White

The Laconia Human Relations Committee in cooperation with the Laconia Public Library offers two films, Even the Rain and Black or White, as the August selections for the International Film Series. These August films will not have a public showing at the Laconia Library. Rather, they are available on the International Films shelf at the library to view at your leisure.

In the first, film Even the Rain, a Mexican filmmaker and his Spanish producer arrive in Cochabamba, Bolivia, with cast and crew prepared to create a historical film portraying Christopher Columbus's first voyage to the New World. The film will depict the imposition of Columbus' will upon the natives and the subsequent native rebellion. It becomes apparent that the treatment of the current cast and extras making the film mirrors Christopher Columbus's treatment of the indigenous people centuries ago.

In the film, Black or White, Elliot Anderson, who is white, is widowed after a car crash leads to the death of his wife. Elliot raises his granddaughter Eloise as he struggles with his grief by binge-drinking. Elliot's world is turned upside-down when the child's black grandmother, Rowena, demands that Eloise be brought under the care of her father, Rowena's son, Reggie, a drug addict. The tension caused by the cross-racial issues demands much of everyone. This 2014 U. S. film starring Kevin Costner is chosen for its cross-cultural implications for healing current racial tensions in the U.S.

The Laconia Human Relations Committee is a committee of the Mayor of Laconia dedicated to expanding our horizons for the appreciation of the diversity found among us and in the wider world. For more information contact Len Campbell at lcampbell@nh-cc.org.

From the City Clerk's Office

Good news! The City Clerk's Office can now process vanity plate applications right here in City Hall! Just stop in and complete an application. You will receive a temporary paper plate with the full expiration date noted, and month and year decals to adhere to your metal license plates once you receive them. Your application will be submitted by our office to NH Division of Motor Vehicles in Concord for approval, and if approved, your vanity plates will be mailed directly to you.

Please note that the DMV has rules regarding what is appropriate for a vanity plate and what is not allowed. If a vanity plate request is denied by the state, the customer will receive a letter and a numbered license plate, and will be credited the vanity plate fee.

Have fun personalizing your license plates and making them one-of-a-kind, and please let us know in the Clerk's Office, 527-1265, if you have any questions!
