THE FIRST EVER LACONIA BIKTEMBERFEST IS THIS WEEKEND!

Mark your calendars and be at Weirs Beach September 14 through the 16th for a fun time! Check out the Facebook page for the event here.

The 14th Annual Laconia Multicultural Festival was a resounding success! The perfect weather set the stage for a day full of great music, food and celebration of our varied heritage. The thousands of attendees gathering in our downtown for this celebration made for an exciting and rewarding day. The happy faces of the folks gathered at Rotary Park, the kids beating the drums at Kid's Corner, and the toe tapping folk grass music at City Hall made the City come alive!

Great events like this can only happen with the support of many sponsors, advertisers, committee members and volunteers. Our thanks to Larry Frates and the 60 flag bearers led by our Mayor, Ed Engler, for kicking off the day with the colorful Parade of Flags! We are grateful to our major sponsors, Well Sense Health Plan, Ascentria Care Alliance, Laconia Human Relations Committee, Lakes Region Mental Health and the Penny Pitou-Milo Pike Family Fund of the NH Charitable Foundation.

Our LMF Committee works on the planning this event year round - to all our Committee Members -we give thanks for your tireless efforts. To the volunteers who are there for us each year as well as the many new volunteers that joined us this year, we salute you! Thanks to our media sponsor, Binnie Media and to the Laconia Daily Sun, Salmon Press and LRPA TV for the great coverage leading up to the event and the coverage of the event itself. To our sound and electrical experts, the help from the Belknap County House of Corrections, and tables from the Taxiarchai Greek Orthodox Church, we thank you all!

The Laconia Human Relations Committee & the Belknap Mill join together to help sponsor this community celebration. It is the hard work & support of many people, organizations, businesses and agencies in Laconia and the Lakes Region that lay the foundation for this great celebration of culture.

Special thanks to the City of Laconia Police Department, Finance Department and Public Works, as well as City Manager Scott Myers & Mayor Ed Engler. It was wonderful collaborating with our friends from the Farmer's Market to make sure our guests visited them, too!

To produce an event like this requires substantial funding. The Multicultural Festival recognizes with gratitude all of our program advertisers. To our many patrons and supporters of this wonderful event — our heartfelt thanks for your donations.

To all our wonderful performers — thank you so much. There wouldn't be a festival without our great vendors and non profit/service agency friends. Thank you all for participating. And finally and most important — to all of you that attended, we hope you enjoyed the day and we so appreciate your continued support and encouragement of the Laconia Multicultural Festival. Again, thank you Lakes Region! Follow us on Facebook and check our website: laconiamulticulturalfestival.org for some great photos!

Parks and Recreation

Laconia, meet Sam!!

Sam is a kite that will soar over Opechee Cove this fall. His job is to scare the geese.

He is Laconia Parks & Recreation's newest technique to remove the geese. If it works, this technique will also be used at other locations known to have a goose problem. Sam is made of Tyvek and should be pretty sturdy. He will only fly in the wind as he is a kite! If there is no wind he will lay flat against the pole. But when the wind picks up he will fly like the eagle he is!!! Go check him out on a breezy day!

NH Humane Society

Over a century of love for those without a voice.

Pet of the Week: Bandit

Bandit is a sweet old man with a meow as soft and youthful as a kitten. He spends most of his days at the shelter tucked away on his blankets, observing the faces that pass him by.

Bandit may not be one for adventuring through the shelter like some of his younger companions, but that does not mean he doesn't know how to have fun. His favorite days are ones filled with yummy treats, fresh wet food, a hearty brushing and plenty of chin rubs. He will call to you whenever he is in need of attention, and if you are lucky he may even give you a few kisses.

Much like any hopeless romantic, he has been waiting all his life to find the person that will be his one and only, and that will finally give him the furever home he so desperately desires. Bandit would do best in a home with no other pets, as he enjoys being the center of attention and requires an extra amount of love. If you are looking to devote your love to someone truly deserving of it, please consider giving Bandit a chance.

Please come and visit with Bandit, you might just be his family. Check www.nhhumane.org or call 524-3252 for details.
