Research shows it's especially important to have a supportive relationship when your child is young. But it's also essential to maintain a close relationship with your child during the teen years. Here are 7 things you can do to maintain a close relationship with your teen:

~ Regularly discuss shared interests. Take time to learn about their hobbies.

~ Engage in extracurricular activities with your teen.

~ Maintain low levels of anger and emotion when talking to them.

~ Work through challenges together.

~ Strive for honest and direct communication with your teen.

~ Offer encouragement for achievements - both large and small. Try to attend their activities so they know that what they are doing is important.

~ Allow your teen an appropriate degree of independence.

Support Lakes Region Scholarship Foundation and help save the environment all through February by purchasing a reusable Community Cause shopping bag at the Gilford Hannaford

The Lakes Region Scholarship Foundation is pleased to be the featured "cause" of the month at the Gilford Hannaford Supermarket. Mr. Brian Burns, Store Manager for the Gilford Hannaford store, said that each month a local charity or service organization is chosen by the store. When a customer purchases one of their reusable shopping bags, Hannaford donates $1 to that organization. LRSF will be the featured "cause" for the month of February.

Assistant LRSF Director, Karen Switzer, offered many thanks to Mr. Burns at Hannaford for his support and said that she hoped that many people in the area would stop in and shop at the Gilford Hannaford during the month of February and purchase a bag to take their groceries home. "We have a motto at the office that every drop in the bucket, even the smallest, helps us at the Scholarship Foundation. We hope that you can be part of this special fundraiser."

Promoting Good Attendance All Winter Long

Every winter, bad weather — snow, slush, freezing temperatures or even heavy rains in warmer climates — can present challenges to getting children to school. So do the colds, fevers and earaches that often come with the winter months.

WHAT CAN PARENTS DO?

1. Develop back up plans for getting your children to school in bad weather.

- Check to see if your child can get a ride with other families who have a reliable car that can manage the snow.
- Form a “walking school bus” with other families to get students to school safely.
- Join other families in a snow shovel brigade to clear the sidewalks closest to the school.
- Ask if school administrators have developed plans for transporting students.

2. Keep your children healthy.

- Dress them warmly for the cold weather.
- Stress the importance of eating a good breakfast every morning.
- Stress hand washing, particularly in the winter months. Send your child to school with a small bottle of hand sanitizer. Research shows that something as simple as hand washing can improve attendance.
- Talk to your doctor or school nurse about when a sick child should come to school. Most health providers allow a child to attend with a cold, but not with a fever.

The Congregational Church of Laconia--United Church of Christ invites you to a book discussion that will help you re-imagine the church in a rapidly changing world. Canoeing the Mountains: Christian Leadership in Uncharted Territory by Tod Bolsinger uses the Lewis and Clark expedition as a metaphor for what the church faces today. Seeking a water route to the Pacific Ocean, Lewis and Clark were in no way prepared for the Rocky Mountains. They were faced with the choice of abandoning their mission or finding another way forward. Bolsinger offers insights and tools helpful in thinking about what effective church leadership looks like today.

No matter what your church affiliation, join us as Martha Clement facilitates discussions on Tuesday, February 5 and 19 and March 5 at either noon or 6:30 pm in the Multipurpose Room/Library of the Parish House of the church in Veterans' Square. Call the church at 524-0668 to register and get more information – this is a free gathering. Books can be purchased in the church office or ordered on Amazon.com or your local bookstore.

International Film Series – Akeelah and the Bee February 4, 2019

The Laconia Human Relations Committee in cooperation with the Laconia Public Library offers the film, Akeelah and the Bee, as the February selection for the International Film Series. The film will be shown on Monday, February 4 at 6:15 pm at the Library. Free and open to the public with a light snack and brief discussion after the film. Feel free to bring a chair cushion!

Akeelah is an 11-year-old girl who with much effort and encouragement participates in the Scripps National Spelling Bee. She attends Crenshaw Middle School, a predominantly black school in South Los Angeles. She lives with her widowed mother, sister, older brothers, and infant niece. Her principal suggests that she sign up for the Crenshaw Schoolwide Spelling Bee because of her excellent spelling record. She refuses, intimidated by the public arena. He so wants the school to do well that he threatens her with detention if she doesn't agree to enter. She gives in, enters the spelling bee, and wins.

Moving beyond her own school in the very 'white world' of competitive national spelling bees, Akeelah is tested far beyond what she thought she could handle. An English professor friend of the principal, with some resistance, finally agrees to help her prepare for advancement. Who knew how much there is to learn about the history of words in order to be able to spell all those words never heard before! She meets Javier Mendez, a 12-year-old Mexican American boy and fellow speller. He invites her to join the spelling club at his Woodland Hills Middle School in a white part of LA. The intricacies of preparing for spelling bees are interlaced with cross-cultural incidents and a stiff competitive environment, producing a cliff-hanger story in this 2006 film.

This is another in the International Film Series shown monthly from September through June at the Laconia Public Library. Check the International Film Series shelf at the library for this and other films shown over the past six years. The Laconia Human Relations Committee is a committee of the Mayor of Laconia dedicated to expanding our horizons for the appreciation of the diversity found among us and in the wider world.
