ADULT BOOK CLUBS

SPRING ADULT BOOK DISCUSSION SERIES: ART THERAPY

Aristotle said, "Art not only imitates nature, but also completes its deficiencies." Why do we use the arts to express passion, share our darkest secrets, or process traumatic events? Is it because a painting is more palatable to society than the circumstances inspiring it, or is it because a novel has the sense of structure and predictability reality lacks?

In this series, we will explore how the written word, the expression of movement, and the language of music can reveal private truths and act as confession.

"THE MASTER" BY COLM TOIBIN

Tuesday, March 5
7pm
Laconia Rotary Hall

Beautiful and profoundly moving, The Master tells the story of Henry James, a man born into one of America's first intellectual families who leaves his country in the late nineteenth century to live in Paris, Rome, Venice, and London among privileged artists and writers. Toibin captures the loneliness and hope of a master of psychological subtlety whose forays into intimacy inevitably fail those he tried to love.

Discussion led by Prof. Maura MacNeil.

Copies are available at the front desk.

MYSTERY BOOK CLUB

Calling all amateur sleuths – The Laconia Library is starting its very own Mystery Book Club! This is an informal monthly book group for readers who love who-dun-its...and coffee! We will be meeting the fourth Thursday of each month.

Wayfarer is generously providing book club participants with 10% off food and drink during the discussion. So bring your appetites and monacles and join us for our third discussion.

Space is limited, please sign up at the front desk.

"THE SNOWMAN" BY JO NESBO

Thursday, March 28
4pm
Wayfarer Coffee Roasters

Oslo in November. The first snow of the season has fallen. A boy named Jonas wakes in the night to find his mother gone. Police investigator, Harry Hole suspects a link between a menacing letter he's received and the disappearance of Jonas's mother—and of perhaps a dozen other women, all of whom went missing on the day of a first snowfall. As his investigation deepens, something else emerges: he is becoming a pawn in an increasingly terrifying game whose rules are devised—and constantly revised—by the killer.

Copies are available at the front desk.

ASK A MUSLIM ANYTHING: A CONVERSATION WITH ROBERT AZZI

Thursday, March 21
6:30pm
Laconia Rotary Hall

Robert Azzi is an Arab-American Muslim who grew up in Manchester, NH. After college, he embarked on a career as a photojournalist, traveling extensively throughout the Middle East and beyond photographing wars and conflicts wherever they occurred. Recent efforts to ban immigrants from Muslim countries from entering the United States compelled Azzi to begin a personal effort to share his faith with people interested in knowing more about Islam and the Muslim faith.

Azzi speaks about his life, what it's like to be Muslim in America, how he came to convert to Islam, about the religion of Islam and its history – especially in America – and about the Middle East, terrorism and associated political and social issues. He speaks not as a scholar or academic but as a neighbor, fellow citizen, and person of faith.

Azzi has been a Nieman Fellow in Journalism at Harvard University, a member of the Leadership Council of the Harvard Divinity School, an advisor to Tufts University's Fletcher School committee on Islam and South-West Asia, and is a board member of ACLU-NH. In November 2018 Azzi was honored as the recipient of the 2018 Nackey S. Loeb School of Communications' First Amendment Award.
