Medical Quackery with Dr. Michael Cross, July 17

The late 19th and early 20th century is considered the "Golden Age of Quackery" – a time when snake oil salesmen sold patent medicines to an unsuspecting public. Can you tell scientific fact from fiction ... or will you fall prey to the snake oil hucksters of today?

Dr. Michael Cross presents a lecture discussing many of the scientific and medical "quack" tonics and devices so prevalent during this period as well as their modern counterparts. Join us Wednesday, July 17 at 6:30 p.m. in Taylor Community's Woodside Building. This free event is open to the public.

Doctor Cross, Associate Professor of Chemistry, is department chair of Natural Sciences at Northern Essex Community College where he teaches chemistry and forensic science. He believes education should be fun and exciting and incorporates demonstrations and magic tricks into his teaching. He holds a Ph.D. in organic chemistry from the University of Utah where he specialized in oxidative lesions in DNA and RNA.

We hope you can join us!

Our yesterdays

Our thanks to Warren D. Huse, the Laconia Historical and Museum Society, and the Laconia Daily Sun for providing a glimpse into our community's past....

THEN . . .

Story's Hotel (also known as Story's Tavern), located on Lakeside Avenue at The Weirs, to the east of the Veterans Association Campground, is seen here in one of several color postcards issued by various publishers around 1900. Proprietor David B. Story, an experienced hotel keeper in both Laconia and Lakeport, was also landlord of the old Hotel Weirs from 1879-1889 (before it was renamed the New Hotel Weirs). His son, J. Henry Story, was the proprietor of the downtown Laconia drugstore that for many years bore the Story name. The building at left was known as the Clyde Cottage. (Laconia Historical and Museum Society)

. . . AND NOW

In later years, the hotel was known as Cawley's, as the Carroll Arms, and ultimately the Weirs Hotel. It was destroyed by fire, Sept. 27, 1991. Shortly after the fire, the site was converted to a parking lot. For a gallery of photos and other information about Story's, go to WeirsBeach.com or to <https://tinyurl.com/y3ovrukz> (Adam Drapcho/The Laconia Daily Sun)
