WOW Trail Lecture, August 14

Founded in 2003, the WOW Trail is a paved, 10-foot wide multi-use rail trail in Laconia enjoyed by bikers, walkers and runners of ages. The trail is named for the three lakes it will one day highlight – Winnepesaukee, Opechee and Winnisquam.

Alan Beetle, president of the WOW Trail Committee, will share the history and future of this unifying landmark and point of pride for Laconia, Wednesday, Aug. 14 at 6:30 p.m. in Taylor Community's Woodside Building. This free event is open to the public.

The trail was built within the state of New Hampshire-owned railroad right-of-way, alongside the active tracks currently leased to the Winnepesaukee Scenic Railroad. It currently spans from Elm Street in Lakeport, to downtown Laconia and then on to the Belmont town line where it meets with Belmont's Winnisquam Scenic Trail, thereby creating 4.25 miles of continuous trail between Lakeport and Belmont's Osborne's Agway.

Sharon "Sugar" Jones in Concert August 11

The 2019 Taylor Concert Series, sponsored by the Bank of New Hampshire, continues Sunday, Aug. 11 at 3 p.m. in Taylor Community's Woodside Building with Sharon "Sugar" Jones. She will be accompanied by Allen Rowe, piano and vocals; Jon Gabay, bass and vocals and Ed Raszka on drums. This free event is open to the public.

Jones is a legendary performer and native of Portsmouth, NH, where she shines as an original stand-out of the Seacoast music scene, with engagements throughout New England, Boston and New York. She specializes in jazz, R&B and Blues.

Costa Blue in Concert August 7

Johnny Blue Horn has entertained countless fans of music in Boston, Providence and the Northeast region since the 1980s. He has since become a double-barreled performer as both a trumpeter and vocalist encompassing a varied range of musical styles, from gritty Memphis R&B to rhythmic New Orleans second-line jazz; from swinging Kansas City blues to heartfelt 1970s soul.

Russ Costa plays guitar, Dobro, harmonica, and sings. Performing since the early '70s in both solo and band performances, he's opened for Leon Russell, Rick Danko, and the Outlaws and performed with Keith Lockhart and the Boston Pops in Tanglewood. He is also the resident blues performer at the original House of Blues in Cambridge, Mass., and he wrote the theme song for Boston's New Year's Eve celebration. Join us for a concert by this talented and powerful Blues Duo Wednesday, Aug. 7 at 6:30 p.m. in Taylor Community's Woodside Building. This free event is open to the public.

Our yesterdays

Our thanks to Warren D. Huse, the Laconia Historical and Museum Society, and the Laconia Daily Sun for providing a glimpse into our community's past....

THEN . . .

Final traces of what had been 'one of Laconia's flourishing industries many years ago' had disappeared, The Citizen reported, 50 years ago this week. John Rudzinski of the family associated with the ice business for more than 50 years had ordered the 100 by 100 foot ice house — the last in the region, perhaps in the state — on Union Avenue near Black Brook — wrecked by Warren Spears' big crane 'which has done so much demolition in recent months' — an allusion to the city's Urban Renewal program, then going on in the downtown area. (courtesy photo)

. . . AND NOW

Last of ice houses marks end of era, home delivery

LACONIA — When John Rudzinski had the big ice house on Union Avenue at Black Brook demolished, 50 years ago last week, it marked the end of an era, The Citizen reported in 1969.

The land would become parking for Rudzinski's Transportation Co. which had five big trailer trucks including one for delivery of cars.

Annual harvest of ice from Lake Paugus had ended in 1964.

The ice company now dealt in artificial ice, going to Boston once or more a week for 350-pound cakes of ice.

There were also 21 vending machines within a 30-mile radius.

"It has been several years since the Rudzinskis, who delivered to houses, ceased that service."

The younger generation "does not remember the ice men who lifted the big pieces with tongs, slung them over their shoulders, and wore rubber sheets on their backs."

Electric refrigeration "changed the picture and few now have to worry about getting back home to empty the round tin pan" under the ice chest.
