Meet This Week's Featured Pets!

Meet Wilson!

This handsome guy came to us as a stray and was unfortunately never claimed. He's a very sweet Australian Shepherd, and is incredibly smart! He already knows sit, paw, speak, down, and we're sure much more. He can get mouthy and independent at times, but with proper exercise and activities he should be fine! Wilson will need an adult-only home, would do best as the only dog in the home for now, and no cats. For more information on how to adopt Wilson, call us at 603-524-3252 ext. 3312 or email adoptions@nghuman.org

Say hello to Enzo!

Enzo came to us a little over two months ago when her previous owner was moving and could not take her along. She is a feisty girl and shelter life has been really stressful on her. She is not used to being outside of a home and would love for someone to take a chance on her. Enzo used to live with a dog in her last home, and could do okay with a dog or cat friend if given enough time to get settled. She would do best with teens or older kids as she can be nervous around new people.

For more information on how to adopt Enzo, call us at 524-3252 ext. 3312 or e-mail us at adoptions@nghuman.org

Please visit our website to view all of our adoptable animals looking to find their "furever" homes! Also visit our Facebook page for our latest news. Questions? Please contact us at 524-3252.

Monday Blues with Tall Granite Big Band, March 2

Based in Concord, New Hampshire, the Tall Granite Big Band is dedicated to Swing and Jazz and they love to play for dancers! Founded as a small group in 2007 - and expanded in 2014 - by three New Hampshire horn players who love American jazz from the 1920s, 1930s, and 1940s. This group has followed their bliss right up into the present, with help from many musical friends.

Everyone is invited to join us for this fun evening of music and swing dancing, Mon., March 2 at 7 p.m., in Taylor Community's Woodside Building. This free event is open to the public.

Jason Anick Acoustic Trio in Concert March 8 at Taylor Community

Taylor Community's 2020 Concert Series, sponsored by Bank of New Hampshire, continues Sunday, March 8 at 3 p.m. with the Jason Anick Acoustic Trio. The musical event is in Taylor's Woodside Building and is free and open to the public.

Fiddle, guitar and bass – it's a combination as old as the hills. But follow Jason Anick, Max O'Rourke and Greg Loughman into those hills and you'll find yourself taking unexpected turns and discovering vistas you never knew were out there. It's a new brand of acoustic music they make – traditional instrumentation spinning ear-catching melodies, channeling the wit and spontaneity of three irrepressible musical storytellers.

This is the eighth season for the concert series, which provides free first-class musical programs in various genres for both Taylor residents and the local community.

We hope you'll join us!

Our yesterdays

Our thanks to Warren D. Huse, the Laconia Historical and Museum Society, and the Laconia Daily Sun for providing a glimpse into our community's past.....

THEN ...

The house at 1 Winnisquam Ave., Laconia (at right), at the corner of Fair Street, next to the Fair Street Bridge, was heavily damaged by fire, Sept. 2, 2019, and declared unfit for occupancy. Two people were left homeless after the two-alarm blaze brought firefighters from seven departments to the scene. From the 1930s to the 1980s, residents of the house had included members of the Carpenter, Peavey and Merrill families. The long building at left (6 Winnisquam Ave.) was built by the Belknap County Farmers Exchange in the early 1920s but that enterprise relocated to New Salem Street a few years later. Other occupants were F.W. Webb and a storage facility for Salta Tire. The nearly-century-old structure is currently occupied by Gouin & Sons Plumbing and Heating. (Google satellite image)

E-cigarette Use: Prevalence, Interventions and Treatment Options for Teens

Symposium for the Winnipesaukee Public Health Region

E-cigarette use is surging among American teenagers, with millions of kids risking health complications and nicotine addiction by regularly vaping.

About 1 of every 10 middle school students (10.5%) reported in 2019 that they used electronic cigarettes in the past 30 days—an increase from 0.6% in 2011.

More than 1 of every 4 high school students (27.5%) reported in 2019 that they used electronic cigarettes in the past 30 days—an increase from 1.5% in 2011 (CDC).

Join local and statewide experts, including Susanne Tanski, MD, MPH, from Dartmouth-Hitchcock to learn more about the changing landscape of nicotine addiction.
