Meet This Week's Featured Pets!

Meet sweet Joan!

Joan came all the way from Lubbock, Texas to find her forever family. She is a two year old boxer mix ready for adventure. Joan is currently learning quite a bit at our shelter. She is food motivated and willing to train!

Currently Joan knows sit, down, is learning leash skills such as 'with me' aka heel, and loose leash walking. Joan would do best in an active adult only home as the only animal. No cats for this sweetheart. If prospective adopters have another dog, we are happy to try them, however Joan has been a little over the top with her doggy friends. For more information, call 603-524-3252 or email adoptions@nghumane.org

Clyde is an adorable boy who came to us recently in search of his forever home.

He sometimes needs a moment to warm up but once he does he is a sweet boy and very cuddly.

He is available for adoption this week, so come meet Clyde and find out if he's the love of your life! For more information, call 524-3252 or email adoptions@nghumane.org

Monday Blues with the Ken Clark Organ Trio, March 9!

The Ken Clark Organ Trio

The Ken Clark Organ Trio have been performing around New England and the eastern U.S. for the past 15 years. According to Owen Cordle, Jazz Times, "Organist Ken Clark, guitarist Mike Mele, and drummer Steve Chaggaris lean on the beat, (high stepping funk, shuffle boogaloo back beat ballad), build dynamic climaxes, sprinkle in jazz solos and deliver the goods."

Cordle continued his high praise of this group, "Clark controls the B3 like a master: hip bass lines, sizzling chordal washes, feel-good riffs, funky blues lines and syncopated accents figure in the mix. The groove, the sonic power of the organ and a soulful message are a forceful combination for reaching the people, all the way from the church to the dance floor. Can't beat the feeling."

Join us for this free public concert, Monday, March 9 at 6:30 p.m. in Taylor Community's Woodside Building.

Aging Workshop Presentation, March 10

Growing old is an inevitable part of life. Because aging is a gradual process, it often becomes an inactive thought until an unexpected decline or loss occurs. Aging only becomes an active thought when it is necessary, and such unexpectedness is often accompanied by shock and unnecessary stress.

Join us as Gerontologist Dr. Khanh Lai, presents an interactive discussion on the common losses associated with aging, and hear her suggestions on ways to adapt and cope with aging declines. This free, public event will be held Tuesday, March 10 at 6:30 p.m. in Taylor Community's Woodside Building.

Doctor Lai was born in Vietnam, immigrating to the U.S. when she was nine years old. She resided in Nebraska most of her life prior to coming to Plymouth and joining the Social Work faculty at Plymouth State University. She obtained her Bachelor's in Social Work at Creighton University and earned her Master's in Social Work and Doctorate in Gerontology at the University of Nebraska in Omaha. She worked as a Medical Social Worker, attending to older adults, at healthcare facilities for more than seven years.

Doctor Lai's research focuses on cognitive aging among older married couples, examining the influence of lifestyle activities, personality traits, psychological health, and memory outcomes. Currently, she is working on a cluster project with the Psychology and Nursing Programs at PSU on the "Music and Memory" project at Glendcliff Home.

Our yesterdays

Our thanks to Warren D. Huse, the Laconia Historical and Museum Society, and the Laconia Daily Sun for providing a glimpse into our community's past.....

THEN ...

The Weirs Beach Smokehouse, just beyond the bridge over the railroad at the entrance to Weirs Beach, had been sold by DLT Realty, owner for the past 11 years, to Brandi Baldi and, after extensive renovations, would open in April 2010 as the Wide Open Saloon & Family Style Restaurant (above). The three-story building — extensively remodeled from its original 1886 hotel configuration — included a full-service restaurant, lounge, outdoor courtyard bar overlooking the lake and a fully equipped commercial kitchen. The inn included 14 rooms and a 10-room motel was located to the rear of the building, seen here sometime during 2010. Built as the Aquedoktan House, the hotel was later also known as the Pleasant View, Park View, Dragon Villa, Sandy Bar Beach Resort and Eden Roc. (Courtesy WeirsBeach.com)

... AND NOW

The Wide Open Saloon operated for one summer season but was destroyed by fire, Sept. 17, 2010. The ruins were eventually removed in 2012. A parking lot now occupies the site. (Adam Drapcho/The Laconia Daily Sun)
