The Libby Museum: A Brief History of New Hampshire's Only Natural History Museum

Thursday, February 20
6:30pm
Laconia Rotary Hall

An assortment of natural specimens from The Libby Museum in Wolfeboro are now on display in the Upper Exhibit Gallery of the Library. The collection features animals native to New Hampshire, as well as information about naturalist Dr. Henry Forrest Libby, who founded the museum in 1912. Museum Director, Alana Albee, will give a talk on the history of the museum, followed by a guided tour of the exhibit.

Seasonal Coloring

Loon Preservation

Tuesday, February 25
6:30pm
Laconia Rotary Hall

Have you ever wondered why loons have red eyes, or what they are saying with those haunting calls? Caroline Hughes, a biologist with the Loon Preservation Committee, will talk about this unique symbol of New Hampshire's wild lakes and its special place in the hearts of New Hampshire residents.

The Loon Preservation Committee is a non-profit organization based in Moultonborough dedicated to the conservation of the common loon and its habitat in New Hampshire.

Adult Dungeons and Dragons

Thursday, February 27
3:30-7:30pm
Volpe Room

Join the campaign! Our Dungeons & Dragons group for adults will meet every other Thursday.

Group limited to 8 people. Sign-up required. Ask at the front desk. Ages 18 and up only.

Mystery Book Club

Calling all amateur sleuths! Join Laconia Library's informal monthly book group for readers who love who-dun-its...and coffee!

Wayfarer is generously providing book club participants with 10% off food and drink during the discussion. So bring your appetites and monocles and join us for our next discussion!

"Murder Past Due" by Miranda James

Thursday, February 27
4-5:30pm
Wayfarer Coffee Roasters

Everyone in Athena, Mississippi, knows librarian Charlie Harris-and his Maine coon cat named Diesel that he walks on a leash. Now, Charlie and Diesel must browse through the history section of the town's past to find a killer.

Interested in one of our other newsletters?
We have them for adults, teens & tweens,
children's, and the monthly adult craft.
