Spring Book Discussion Series: Forgotten New Hampshire Women

In this series, we will explore the lives of four dynamic women with ties to New Hampshire. Whether faded into obscurity or known only for infamous acts, the subjects of these titles led dramatic and noteworthy lives.

"Hanging Ruth Blay" by Carolyn Marvin

Tuesday, March 3
7pm

The eighteenth-century hanging of a schoolteacher for concealing the birth of a child out of wedlock has appeared in local legend over the last few centuries, but the full account of Ruth's story has never been told.

Discussion led by Chris Benedetto.

Craft Supply Swap

Saturday, March 7
Early Birds with Tickets: 9:30-10am
Open to General Swappers: 10am-12pm

Is your craft room overflowing with remnants of projects past? Have you been wanting to try out something new, but don't want to invest in supplies you may only use once? Join fellow crafters for our first ever craft supply swap!

WHAT IT IS:

Between March 2nd and March 6th, bring your unused or very lightly used craft supplies to the circulation desk, and receive a special early bird ticket. On Saturday, March 7th, come to the library between 9:30 and 10 am to swap your ticket for a new-to-you supply. Receive an extra ticket by donating directly to the library from our wish list of craft supplies. Doors open for the general public (non-ticket holders) at 10 am.

- Available craft supplies at the swap will depend entirely on what others have donated.

- To participate in the swap, you must bring an item to swap. (Money CANNOT be accepted.)
- Swaps will be a 1:1 ratio of similar size/value and are on the honor system.

GUIDELINES FOR DONATIONS:

- Only materials in unused, or very lightly used condition.
- Only craft supplies, no recycled materials.
- Donations accepted during open hours Monday, March 2 through Saturday, March 7 (until 12pm) only.

You do not have to have a ticket or bring in materials early, items can be swapped the day of.
