Think Twice Before Buying Easter Chicks

With Easter coming soon, you'll be seeing ads for Easter chicks. Aww... aren't they cute? However, the City considers chickens, even the cute little chicks, to be livestock and NOT pets. In most areas of the City, livestock including chickens, are not allowed to be kept on the property.

Chickens, ducks, guinea hens, pigs, goats, and other agricultural animals are not permitted in most districts in the urban/suburban districts in Laconia. Agriculture and agricultural animals are permitted in the RR1 (Residential Rural), RR2 (Residential Rural Corridor) and AI (Airport Industrial) districts. In the CR (Commercial Resort) district, agriculture and the animals typically associated with agriculture are only allowed by Special Exception granted by the Zoning Board of Adjustment. If you're not sure what zoning district you live in, check your tax card on the City website or call the Planning office at 524-1264 to find out.

A good idea is to keep your chick purchases to the pink marshmallow kind!

March is Women's History Month!

Votes for Women: A History of the Suffrage Movement

The campaign for women's right to vote was a long one, from the 1848 Women's Rights Convention in Seneca Falls, New York to ratification of the 19th Amendment in 1920.

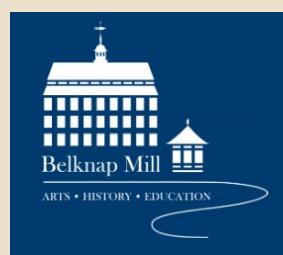

Who were the key players in New Hampshire and the nation? What issues and obstacles did they face? How did suffragists benefit from World War I in the final push for passage of the women's suffrage amendment? Who was left out when women got the right to vote?

Using historic photos and documents, Liz Tentarelli will guide us on the journey. Liz is President of the League of Women Voters NH, a nonpartisan organization that is the direct descendant of the National American Woman Suffrage Association.

This 'Humanities To Go' event is offered through the generosity of New Hampshire Humanities.

THEN ...

The John T. Coffin homestead (left) occupied the Main Street property on which the first Masonic Temple Building (next below) was erected in 1894-1896. Until the early 1890s, both sides of Main Street from Bank Square to Church Street contained mainly dwellings, many substantial like this one, with spacious grounds, trees and fences. (Laconia Public Library)

... NEXT ...

The first Masonic Temple Building, which opened this week in 1896, contained the city offices, post office and several businesses on the first two floors. Close inspection discloses the Laconia Hardware Co. at left, with Knight & Huntress, a dry goods store, next, then the entrance to the Post Office and two more stores at far right. (Laconia Public Library)

... AND NOW

A new Masonic Temple Building — today's 653 Main Street — was dedicated in June 1904 after its predecessor was destroyed, Dec. 6, 1902, by fire and explosion. For six decades, the Lougee-Robinson Co. (furniture, dishes, carpets, etc.) occupied much of the building. The Masonic bodies sold the property in 1984 and moved to 63 Court St. (Adam Drapcho/The Laconia Daily Sun)
