Our yesterdays

Our sincere thanks to Warren D. Huse, the Laconia Historical and Museum Society, and the Laconia Daily Sun for providing a glimpse into our community's past.....

THEN ...

Lakeside Avenue, Weirs Beach, is thronged with visitors for a 'Boat-O-Rama' in June 1958. Landmarks at left include the Half Moon Restaurant and arcades, Tarlson's Arcade and, up on Tower Street, Trinity Methodist Church. On the boardwalk, at right, the Weirs Information Booth is open for business. Roof of the art deco 'Municipal Building' and railroad station is glimpsed in lower right corner. (Laconia Historical and Museum Society)

... AND NOW

The same scene in late August 2023 shows many of the same buildings, along with improvements in utilities and landscaping. Roof in right corner is that of the replacement for the railroad station, built in 1986 by the Winnepesaukee Flagship Corp. In both photos, the Lake Side Hotel (now called Winnepesaukee Marketplace) is seen in the distance at right. (Jon Decker/The Laconia Daily Sun)
