Wayfarer Coffee Roasters

Calling all amateur sleuths – The Laconia Library is starting its very own Mystery Book Club! This is an informal monthly book group for readers who love who-dun-its...and coffee! We will be meeting the fourth Thursday of each month.

Wayfarer is generously providing book club participants with 10% off food and drink during the discussion. So bring your appetites and monocles and join us for our first discussion.

January's book is "The Fate of Mercy Alban" by Wendy Webb

Grace Alban has spent twenty years away from her childhood home, the stately Alban House, for reasons she would rather forget. But when her mother's unexpected death brings Grace and her teenage daughter home, she finds more haunting the halls and passageways of Alban House than her own personal demons. –from Goodreads

Copies are available at the front desk.

The Graphic Novel Process

Thursday, January 31
6:30pm
Laconia Rotary Hall

Katharine Woodman-Maynard will walk us through the stages of her graphic novel writing process.

She'll start with the initial brainstorming stage, to thumbnail sketches, writing a script, pencil drawings, inks, and finally the coloring stage. She'll touch on the world of publishing (which she's in the process of navigating) and digital versus traditional techniques.

Her presentation will be enhanced by visuals of her work and process.

Katharine Woodman-Maynard is a graphic designer and graphic novelist based in Concord, NH. After a career in animation in San Francisco, she moved to NH where she works as a freelance graphic designer and graphic novelist. She's working on publishing her debut graphic novel where she's combining digital drawing with traditional watercolor.

She can be followed on social media as @WoodmanMaynard and her website is WoodmanMaynard.com
